

NORTHWEST UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS

VISITOR'S GUIDE

Welcome visiting teams, fans and guests!

On behalf of Northwest University, we welcome you to Kirkland, Washington and our campus. We hope your stay in our area is an enjoyable one and hope this visitor's guide will assist you while you're here.

Northwest University is proud to be a member of the Cascade Collegiate Conference and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA).

As members of the NAIA, all of the of Cascade Collegiate Conference member schools are a part of the NAIA's Champions of Character program which is a national, community-based and educational outreach initiative which is an effort to instill an understanding of character values in sport and provide practical tools for student-athletes, coaches and parents to use in modeling exemplary character traits. The five core values of of the program are respect, responsibility, integrity, sportsmanship and servant leadership. The program currently reaches hundreds of thousands of students on nearly 300 college and university campuses in North America and extends into their surrounding communities. Northwest University supports this program and tries to live by the core values in the way we participate in intercollegiate athletics.

Coaches, parents, fans, administrators and community partners all have a role in developing students of character. The NAIA Champions of Character program brings them training, guidelines and behavior models to create positive environments that promote personal growth and fun sport activity.

We are proud of our new on-campus soccer fields which opened in the fall of 2009. We have both artificial turf and a natural grass field. The natural grass field is one of the finest surfaces for soccer you'll find anywhere.

This visitor's guide is designed as a useful tool for coaches, team members, staff, officials and fans of visiting teams. We hope it will answer many questions you might have regarding your visit to our campus and the surrounding Kirkland-Bellevue-Seattle area. More information about our campus is available on our web site at: www.northwestu.edu. There is a link to our Athletics page on the web site's home page.

It is my pleasure to welcome you. Safe travels and best of luck with your season.

Best regards,

Gary McIntosh II
Director of Athletics

Main campus phone number: 425.822.8266

Campus Security: 425.864.1552

Admissions: 1.800.669.3781

Directions to the Campus:

From Seattle: Go east on WA 520 to the Kirkland/Bellevue area. Exit at the Lake Washington Blvd. northbound exit. Proceed north (down the hill) on Lake Washington Blvd. to Northup Way (first stoplight). Turn right onto Northup Way, then turn left at the next stoplight (108th Ave. NE). Go approximately one mile. The entrance to the campus will be on your right. The Pavilion is on the southern edge of the campus, just east of the Adventist School playfield on 108th Ave. NE.

From I-405: Take Exit #17 (NE 70th St):

Northbound: Turn left at the first light, then left again at the second light. You will cross over the freeway. Continue down the hill through the third light, then take a left at the fourth light (108th Ave. NE). Drive approximately one half of a mile and the entrance to the campus will be on your left. The Pavilion is on the southern edge of the campus, just east of the Adventist school playfield on 108th Ave. NE.

Southbound: Turn left at the first light and take another left at the second light (108th Ave. NE). Drive approximately one half of a mile and the entrance to the campus will be on your left. The Pavilion is on the southern edge of the campus, just east of the Adventist school playfield on 108th Ave. NE.

Directions to the NU Athletic/Soccer fields:

The Northwest University athletic fields are at the top of our campus (east of the main campus) where the Seattle Seahawks former corporate headquarters and practice facility were located. Take NE 53rd (on the south border of the campus off 108th Avenue NE) and drive up the hill (east). Turn left at the third entrance to the campus and parking is available in the lot next to the Butterfield Chapel. The NU fields will be to your right as you turn into the campus. Visiting team buses and vans may park in the lot to the west of the fields near the Butterfield Chapel (see map on page 9).

Athletic Training Room - Visiting Teams

Location

The Northwest University, Athletic Training room is located in the foyer of the campus NU Pavilion. (See the campus map and directions in the back of this guide)

Services

The Athletic Training room is open to Northwest University athletes and visiting teams who are in need of injury assessment, treatments, and rehabilitation. The Athletic Training staff has a direct relationship with our team physicians and has established a network of other health care providers including: physical therapists; dentists; dermatologists; podiatrists; emergency care givers and NU's nurse.

Larry Brown (Right) Head Athletic trainer with former NU trainer Jim Richards.

The athletic training staff will perform an initial assessment of an athlete's health care needs, including general health issues and injuries. Issues that are beyond the staff's scope of practice will be referred to the appropriate health care practitioner. The athletic training room is equipped with muscle/nerve stimulation units, an ultra sound unit, cryotherapy, hydrocollators, whirlpools, ice machines, taping stations, treatment tables, a defibrillator, and an assortment of athletic training supplies. The training room staff is qualified to utilize their skills and resources in prevention, treatment, rehabilitation. NU's Certified Athletic Trainers will develop a plan for the athlete's safe return to participation.

Schedule

The athletic training room officially opens prior to the first fall sport practices in August and closes after the last spring sport event in May. Office hours vary with scheduled practice and event times. Cascade Conference rules require an athletic trainer to be available for athletes care two hours prior to a scheduled practice or event. Northwest University and visiting athletes have access to the Eagle Training Room at all times during open hours.

Visiting Teams

Visiting athletic teams should contact the NU Head Athletic Trainer prior to arriving on campus for an athletic event to arrange a time for treatment and to alert the trainer about any athlete's physical conditions that may need special attention. Please contact:

Larry G. Brown, MS, AT/L, Head Athletic Trainer at: 425.889.5353 or email: larry.brown@northwestu.edu
