References

Please have at least two co-workers, friends or other individuals who are acquainted with your character and scholastic readiness for the program complete the Personal Reference Forms included in this packet. Ask them to mail, e-mail, or fax the reference forms directly to the Graduate and Professional Studies Office. Do not use a family member as a reference. For those planning to pursue a B.A. in Ministry Leadership, one of the reference forms must be completed by a pastor.

Autobiographical Essays

Step One:

Please write an essay that describes the significant events and experiences that led to your interest in pursuing the Business Management degree, Ministry Leadership degree, Psychology degree, or the Associate of Arts degree. (200 word minimum, please type and double space)

Step Two:

Discuss in general terms the importance of a B.A. or A.A. degree in today's world. Include reflections on what you hope to personally gain from completing your degree. (200 word minimum, please type and double space)

Applicant Signature

In applying for admission to Northwest University, I affirm that I will respect its standards of conduct as stated in the Northwest University LEAP Student Handbook.

I also realize that admission to one program does not indicate acceptance into other academic programs of the University, since they may have other admission criteria.

I understand that this application, any transcripts, and my autobiographical essay are valid for two years from the date of submission. References are valid for twelve months from application date.
