On May 24, 2021, Northwest University received authorization and funding from the Department of Education (DOE) for $1,896,677 as part of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF III) authorized by the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA), for emergency financial aid funding for students. On May 25, 2021, Northwest University received authorization and funding from the Department of Education (DOE) for $1,711,667 as part of the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF III) authorized by the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA), for institutional use.

STUDENT ASSISTANCE GRANT

Northwest University is currently working through an application process for distributing the emergency financial aid funding for students of $1,896,677. We anticipate an initial drawdown of funds being awarded and distributed to students no later than August 20, 2021.

INSTITUTIONAL GRANT

Northwest University will use the institutional allocation of $1,711,667 to cover lost revenue due to the COVID pandemic, as well as direct costs for purchasing supplies and labor related to the pandemic and for housing students to de-densify our residential housing and supply quarantine and isolation housing. Drawdowns of these funds will be made after the student assistance grants are distributed, but an initial drawdown will be made no later than August 20, 2021.
