Eagle Athletics Hall of Fame

The Eagle Hall of Fame exists to honor alums, employees and volunteers who have brought distinction to Northwest University through outstanding achievement in their athletic performance, career accomplishments, or community service.

Selection Process

1. Northwest University students, alumni, employees and all interested parties may submit nominations at any time during the calendar year.

2. In April of each year, nominations from the previous twelve months will be considered. During this month the Athletic Committee will meet to review, discuss and vote on nominees. A two-thirds favorable vote is required by the Selection Committee to be inducted.

3. Up to three individuals, one team, and one outstanding service nominee may be inducted in any given year. The maximum number of inductees in any given year will be five. The selection committee may choose to award in as many or as few categories as seems appropriate in any given year.

4. Hall of Fame inductees will be selected based on the following criteria for each of the four award categories:

   Individual Alum - Outstanding Athletic Achievement: Nominated for athletic achievement as a student-athlete when enrolled at Northwest University.

   a. Strong preference will be given to students who have graduated from Northwest University. Inductees must have exited the institution in good academic standing.
   b. Nominees will become eligible five years following graduation or last semester of their playing career.
   c. Nominees will have demonstrated outstanding performance and achievement as a student-athlete and will have brought exceptional distinction to the Athletic Department or Northwest University during their playing career.

   Individual Alum - Outstanding Service: Nominated for their outstanding achievements or recognition which occurred after completion of their playing career at Northwest University.
