This catalog serves as an augment to Northwest’s Undergraduate Academic Catalog and includes information and policies specifically applicable to Northwest’s graduate programs.
NORTHWEST UNIVERSITY

Northwest University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, or genetic information in its admissions policies. Further, it is the policy of the University not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in the administration of its educational programs, including employment, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other college-administered programs and activities. As a religious educational organization, the University reserves the right to prefer employees and prospective employees on the basis of religion, and also reserves its right to prefer students and prospective students on the basis of religion. At this time, only traditional undergraduate students are required to comply with the University’s faith requirements.

Northwest is a drug and alcohol-free campus for all employees and students, and offers educational programs in alcohol and drug awareness for all campus groups. Inquiries regarding Northwest’s policy and responsibilities should be addressed to the Senior Vice President.

Northwest University reserves the right to make any changes in the content and provisions of the catalog without notice. This includes the right to change the rules regulating admission to, instruction in, and graduation from the University, and to change any other regulations affecting the student body which shall apply not only to prospective students, but also to those presently matriculated in the University.

Veterans: Information contained in this publication is hereby certified as true and correct in content and policy as of the date of publication, in compliance with the Veterans Administration DVB Circular 20-76-84 and Public Law 94-502.

Northwest University is in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974/1996. A full description of FERPA rights is in the Academic Services section.

ACCREDITATION AND AFFILIATIONS

Northwest University is accredited by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities (regional). The University is endorsed by the Commission on Christian Higher Education of the Assemblies of God and the Association of Christian Schools International.

Accreditation of an institution of higher education by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities indicates that it meets or exceeds criteria for the assessment of institutional quality evaluated through a peer review process. An accredited college or university is one which has available the necessary resources to achieve its stated purposes through appropriate educational programs, is substantially doing so, and gives reasonable evidence that it will continue to do so in the foreseeable future. Institutional integrity is also addressed through accreditation.
Accreditation by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities is not partial but applies to the institution as a whole. As such, it is not a guarantee of every course or program offered, or the competence of individual graduates. Rather, it provides reasonable assurance about the quality of opportunities available to students who attend the institution.

The University holds membership in the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities. The Council is committed to cultivating communities of educational excellence in which the Lordship of Jesus Christ is central. Membership in this esteemed association of Christian colleges and universities provides opportunities for personal and professional enrichment for students, faculty, and administrators.

The University is also approved by the Board of Education and Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of Washington to prepare elementary and secondary education teachers and recommend for certification. It is a member of the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education.

The Buntain School of Nursing baccalaureate program at Northwest University is accredited by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE), One DuPont Circle, NW, Suite 530, Washington, DC 20036, and (202) 887-6791. “(CCNE is an autonomous accrediting arm of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing for baccalaureate and graduate nursing programs.) In addition, the School of Nursing has received approval from the Washington State Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission.

The University is approved by the Federal and State Governments for student aid programs and for the training of international students. Selected programs of study are approved by a Washington State Approving Agency for enrollment of those eligible for benefits under Title 38 and Title 10, U.S. Code and by Washington State for training in Vocational Rehabilitation. It is listed in the current bulletin, “Accredited Higher Education Institutions,” published by the U.S. Office of Education.

Inquiries’ regarding an institution’s accredited status by the Northwest Commission on Colleges and Universities should be directed to the administrative staff of the institution. Individuals may also contact:

Northwest University is a regionally-accredited, Christian coeducational institution awarding associate, baccalaureate, masters and doctoral degrees. The University is operated under the control of the Alaska, Montana, North Pacific Latin American, Northern California Nevada, Northwest, Northwest Hispanic, Oregon, Southern Idaho, and Wyoming districts of the Assemblies of God. All these districts are represented on the University's Board of Directors.

NORTHWEST UNIVERSITY MISSION

We, the people of Northwest University, carry the call of God by continually building a learning community dedicated to spiritual vitality, academic excellence, and empowered engagement with human need.

MISSIONAL VALUES

The Mission of Northwest University, a Christian university affiliated with the Assemblies of God, is derived from the following values:

Spiritual Vitality
- Moving together in personal relationship with Christ Jesus and knowledge of God’s calling, we dedicate ourselves to Spirit-filled service.
- Practicing discipleship and worship with biblical faithfulness, we develop courage and character to meet the challenges of our world.
- Crafting a diverse, lifelong community, we recognize the intrinsic worth and dignity of each individual and facilitate friendships and networks that reach out to welcome others in love.

Academic Excellence
- Exploring all truth with scholarly excellence, we build a biblical worldview to prepare each other for service and leadership throughout the world.
- Developing moral, spiritual, intellectual, and aesthetic values through the arts and sciences, we integrate faith, learning, and life.
- Thinking critically, we aid one another in academic achievement and lifelong pursuit of knowledge, wisdom, and skills.

Empowered Engagement
- Growing holistically, we clarify and obey individual God-given callings.
- Communicating and modeling the Gospel, we call people and communities to be reconciled to God and to each other.
- Demonstrating Spirit-inspired compassion and creativity, we meet the needs of individuals, build communities, and care for creation.

CORE THEMES

Core Theme One
- Building a caring community and enduring culture

Core Theme Two
- Developing Christian commitment and Spirit-formed lives

Core Theme Three
- Advancing academic engagement through teaching, learning and scholarly production

Core Theme Four
- Empowering people with the vision and tools to meet human need in their personal and professional lives
COMMUNITY COVENANT

Our community covenant is founded on our shared calling and relationship as Christ-followers, as outlined in Colossians 3:12-15. “Therefore, as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful.”

Based on the teachings in this verse and the enabling of God, we endeavor that all of our interactions and communications will show respect for the wellbeing of all, especially those who may disagree with us.

To that end, we commit before God to communicate honestly, openly, and humbly—without cynicism or a supposed sense of superiority and always with the respect that allows us to recognize the value of others as children of God and members of this community. Furthermore, we recognize the value of diverse opinions and that unity does not require unanimity.

Standards of Civility

By civility, we intend more than mere politeness. Rather we intend a basic set of attitudes and actions upon which we can build a community that is able to celebrate our differences, make decisions, and resolve conflict in a positive and forward-moving manner. These standards do not intend to stifle anyone’s leadership, academic freedom, or freedom of speech. Rather they provide ‘guidelines of participation’ for our Christian and professional community. The goal is to create the conditions that best allow trust and positive relationships to flourish.

Therefore, the NU administration, faculty, and staff commit to prioritize the following in our communications within NU and concerning NU to the general public:

1. Encouragement: encourage each other and value the contributions that all members make to the shared mission of NU.
2. Collaboration: choose to enter into communication non-defensively, assuming other parties have good will toward us and are acting in good faith.
3. Forgiveness: allow others to grow through forgiveness, and avoid holding grudges.
4. Inclusiveness: prioritize inclusive language and actively recruit input from under-represented voices (bearing in mind categories like gender, culture, ethnicity, position, and rank).

Governance, Planning and the Use of Authority

We recognize that we all exercise authority in one or more areas, making decisions that affect others. Therefore, we commit to the following tenets:

Whether as individuals or as groups, we affirm that it is incumbent on us to value a broad perspective and seriously take into account those whom our decisions affect and those with a reasonable interest in our decisions. It is also incumbent on us, when we have a reasonable interest in decisions, to engage and offer input.

Similarly, we acknowledge that there are times when decisions are made with which everyone does not agree. In those instances, we commit to behave with a cooperative and positive attitude, even while we may continue to work respectfully within the system to seek change.

Healthy Interaction, Input, Grievances, Complaints, and Contributions

In our communication, we will seek the most respectful, orderly, and productive tone and medium appropriate for our message and context. Particularly in times of conflict, we should, as professionals, craft our communication in a manner that minimizes miscommunication and preserves the intent of our message. The Employee and Faculty Manuals outline procedures for engaging the system and working through committee and group structures to affect change. In the case of more personal grievances between individuals, all effort should be made to resolve the issue through the process outlined in the Employee Manual, Section V: Conduct: Complaint Resolution.

We commit to the following actions:

1. Be truth seekers who speak in specifics, not in generalities.
2. Seek to understand fully before expressing disagreement or dissent.
3. Rely on first-hand accounts.
4. Strive to reconcile hurts and reach a mutually agreed upon resolution.
5. Take personal responsibility for uncivil or improper actions in order to restore harmony in the community.
6. Participate in the discussion of issues of concern, or if not, choose to respect the outcome.

We commit to this covenant remembering that in the companionship of fellow Christians we can see the image of God in one another. As Paul exhorts us, “therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification” (Romans 14:19).
Non-Discrimination

Northwest University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, or genetic information in its admissions policies. Further, it is the policy of the University not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, sex, disability, genetic information, or veteran status in the administration of its educational programs, including employment, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other college-administered programs and activities. As a religious educational organization, the University reserves the right to prefer employees and prospective employees on the basis of religion, and also reserves its right to prefer students and prospective students on the basis of religion. At this time, only traditional undergraduate students are required to comply with the University’s faith requirements.

Northwest is a drug and alcohol-free campus for all employees and students, and offers educational programs in alcohol and drug awareness for all campus groups.

Northwest University is committed to a policy of non-discrimination with regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, marital status, or physical disability. Persons having questions regarding University policy of non-discrimination should contact the Dean of Student Development.

Northwest University is in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974/1996. A full statement on FERPA rights is found in this catalog.

Precision of Language

Northwest University is committed to the equality of men and women and to creating a learning community for all people. This commitment is based on the Bible’s teaching that God’s kingdom is made up of men and women from every nation, tribe, people, and language—and that no group constitutes the norm. Therefore, we expect students and members of the faculty, staff and administration to avoid sexist language and to employ inclusive language in writing, public speaking, and public worship. Further, we encourage members of the Northwest University community to be sensitive and respectful whenever referring to the personal characteristics of others. For guidance, see the Non-Discriminatory Language Guide at the Hurst Library.

Program Format

Most graduate programs at Northwest University use a cohort system for most courses. Each new student is grouped into a “cohort” with the other entering students and registers for nearly the same course schedule as the other members of their graduate program’s cohort for the entire program. In most programs students are allowed to take additional courses with other cohorts. Program cohorts range from 12-40 students, depending on the specific graduate program and course. The advantage of this system is the support and openness it creates. The cohort becomes a valuable resource into which students can tap. Students study and learn together. They also become comfortable with one another to the point of being able to discuss difficult issues and share personal accounts. Since a higher level of openness is attainable, a higher level of learning can also be reached.

Course Format

Classes are designed to complement the lives of adult learners who often seek to balance their academic goals with the demands of everyday life. Masters level graduate programs take one to two years while doctoral programs may require a minimum of four to five years of full-time study scheduled across three annual semesters. Each graduate program has been designed based on the nature of the discipline and vocational commitments of its students. For instance, the College of Education’s programs are designed with sensitivity to teachers who are daily in the classroom, while many of the College of Ministry’s classes meet for week-long intensive seminar sessions. Some graduate courses utilize Friday evening and all day Saturday schedules. Students should consult their respective program’s course format details and the current program schedule online at www.northwestu.edu and in this catalog for specific class offerings, including days and times.

On-Demand Courses

A limited number of course electives may be offered when enough students express interest. Students do so by communicating with their respective program at least one term before they desire to take the course.

Special Seminars

Periodically, programs may offer students the opportunity to register for optional courses that do not meet in the traditional classroom format. At times, special seminars may be offered in a variety of formats. These seminars are taught to enrich the curriculum and build awareness for graduate students. Students should consult their program’s semester schedule for more details.

Graduate Research

Several graduate programs either require or offer students the opportunity to work with a graduate faculty member through independent or directed research on a topic of the student’s choice. Students desiring to conduct graduate research in addition to the research requirements of their program must complete and submit a special request form to their program’s office. If approved, a program professor will be assigned to the student to ensure that the proper quantity and quality of work is assigned and performed.
Institutional Review Board

The Northwest University Institutional Review Board (NU IRB) is a federally regulated committee that directs the care of participants in research affiliated with the University. In particular, the job of the NU IRB is to establish and enforce ethical guidelines to protect participants from harm and to respect their personal dignity, especially those individuals who have limited understanding of the risks of their participation or who have diminished decision-making abilities. Unless exempt, research projects affiliated with Northwest University must be approved by the NU IRB for the duration of the project. See the Institutional Review Board link on the Provost’s Eagle Page for further information.

Failure to adhere to federal laws relating to use of human subject(s) in research or the requirements of the NU IRB constitutes noncompliance. Examples include conducting research outside of NU IRB approval dates, not following NU IRB requirements, or failure to be forthcoming about research projects. Instances of possible noncompliance shall be brought to the NU IRB full committee for discussion and investigation. The NU IRB will conclude one of the following outcomes.

a. The instance does not constitute noncompliance and will be dismissed

b. The instance constitutes noncompliance that can be ameliorated via a Corrective Plan proposed by the primary investigator (PI) and subsequently agreed upon by the NU IRB

c. The instance constitutes noncompliance that is either serious or continuous
   • Serious noncompliance is that which increases risks to participants, intentionally violates policies, or is otherwise deemed serious by the NU IRB.
   • A continuous instance of noncompliance is a pattern of violating the federal laws governing research involving human subjects, or the requirements of the NU IRB, whether intentionally or not.

Consequences of serious or continuous noncompliance will be decided by the University Provost, in conjunction with the IRB committee, associated Academic Dean, and dissertation/thesis committee chair in instances involving student-PIs. Those consequences may include

a. withdrawal of IRB approval
b. modifications to the study protocol
c. increased monitoring of the research project including access to the data where needed
d. suspension or termination of the research project
e. termination of current and future research projects
f. dismissal from the University

Membership

The National Institute of Health specifies that the board must have at least five members who represent a variety of backgrounds. In particular federal policy indicates that at least one member of the committee must be a scientist, one member a non-scientist and one member must not be affiliated with the institution in question.

Library

The D.V. Hurst Library provides the Northwest University community with collections, services, and spaces that foster the integration of biblical faith with the academic research process. Library collections can be searched from the library website (http://library.northwestu.edu/) and most are available in online or digital formats.

Collections include substantial eJournal, eBook, and print book holdings covering all subject areas; the NU Archives and Syllabus Archive; the Perkins Judaic/Messianic Collection; and the Pentecostal Collection.

Library services include research guides and tutorials, interlibrary loan for articles, the EasyBib citation generator, computers, and wireless access. Librarians are available for consultation for any information needs, and specific queries can be sent by email to library@northwestu.edu or by using the chat form on the library website. NU students also enjoy borrowing privileges at a number of other local libraries (see http://library.northwestu.edu/napcu/ for the full list).

The NU Library has a physical location on each of the three NU campuses. On the Kirkland Campus, the D.V. Hurst Library building provides a number of study environments including a 24 hour study space, collaborative group study areas, large and small group study rooms, and study carrels. The Kirkland Campus Library also offers color printing, scanning, and interlibrary loan for books.

Internships

Internships allow students to put into practice what they learn in the classroom, and are an integral part of several graduate programs. If students desire to experience an internship when it is not required by their program, they should contact their program office for details. If an internship is approved, a graduate professor will provide guidance in the selection and approval of an internship site and assist in formulating the Internship Site Agreement. The program dean must approve the registration and internship schedule, including any specialized courses or activities pertinent to the internship. Ultimately, the student is responsible to ensure that internship activities satisfy any degree requirements.
Admission to Northwest University is granted to applicants meeting the University admissions requirements without regard to sex, race, color, age, national or ethnic origin, or physical disability. However, admissions are made on a selective basis according to the criteria described below.

General Admission Requirements

- A Bachelor of Arts or Science (or an equivalent degree) from a regionally accredited college or university. Allowances may be made for degrees accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), depending on the degree and major earned and the selected graduate program.

- A minimum of a 3.0 grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale. College of Ministry graduate programs require a minimum of a 2.70 grade point average (GPA).

- Entrance Tests: The MBA program application requires a qualifying score on the Graduate Management Admissions Test (GMAT). The Psy.D. Program application requires taking the Graduate Record Exam (GRE). Northwest University’s Institutional Code is #4541.

- Completion of application process, fulfillment of program-specific requirements, and acceptance into the respective graduate program.

- For additional, program-specific admissions requirements, please contact the respective enrollment counselor.

For students who have a green card or who are in the process of obtaining citizenship and are in good standing with the United States government:

- Fulfillment of General Admission Requirements and any program-specific admission requirements.

- Degrees obtained outside the US must be evaluated for the US degree equivalency and GPA by a NACES member agency. http://www.naces.org/members.html

Conditional Admissions Status

Conditional admission status may be offered to students who meet entrance requirements at Northwest University, but do not have a completed application. Admission to Northwest University is conditional based upon satisfying specific requirements prior to full admission. Individuals admitted on Conditional standing will not be permitted to take courses for more than one term or session.

International Student Admission Requirements

In addition to program-specific admission requirements, international students (those operating on an F-1 student visa) must:

- have a valid passport

- have proof of adequate funds to cover all expenses and travel for the duration of their first year of study

- have international medical insurance while studying at Northwest University

- comply with all laws and regulations related to F-1 students, as determined the Department of Homeland Security

English Testing Requirement

Citizens of approved countries with English as an official language and/or the language of instruction are exempt from the TOEFL and IELTS. A current list of approved countries is maintained by the Center for English Language Education.

For graduate students whose native language is not English, one of the following requirements is necessary to qualify for admission to Northwest University:

Test Scores

1. TOEFL internet-based (iBT) score of 90,
2. IELTS score of 7.
3. Compass Test score in two of the following categories: 95+ on Reading, Grammar, or Listening or 12 on Compass E-Write.

MATESOL Requirements

1. TOEFL internet-based (iBT) score of 100,
2. IELTS score of 7.

Program completion

1. If you have completed a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science degree from a U.S. regionally or nationally accredited college/university with a minimum GPA of 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
2. If you have completed Level 4 Bridge of the ESL program at the Center of English Language Education (CELE) at Northwest University with a grade of 85% or higher and a GPA of 3.0 in NU Bridge classes.

Foreign Degree Requirements

Any college or university transcript which is submitted from a school located outside of the US and Canada must be supplemented by an official evaluation of the transcript for US degree equivalency and GPA, performed by an institution approved by NACES http://www.naces.org/members.html. (Course-by-course evaluations are not required unless transfer credit is requested; for more information, please consult the enrollment counselor for the program to which you are applying.)

TOEFL or IELTS Requirements and Waiver

For international students whose native language is not English, and do not hold a bachelor’s degree or a master’s degree from a US-based institution which is a) regionally accredited, and b) teaches its classes in English, are subject to the TOEFL or IELTS requirement:

If you hold an equivalent degree from another English-only speaking country (as determined by an official evaluation), you may be eligible to receive a waiver of the TOEFL or IELTS.

Information concerning TOEFL schedules and test centers may be obtained from U.S. consulates or bi-national cultural centers in many countries or from the TOEFL website. Information concerning IELTS testing may likewise be obtained from the IELTS website.

Application Deadlines

December 1; March 1; and June 1 prior to the applicable entering fall semester, or as specified for each program. Please refer to the specific program pages for additional information.

Priority is given to the first application deadline. Applications received by the first application deadline will be processed and either accepted, denied, or deferred to the second application deadline. Following the final deadline, applicants will be accepted as space is available. International students are encouraged to make the first application deadline because of the time it takes to issue an I-20 and receive a student visa.
offered in the past, and a list of specific needs and services that will be requested from Northwest University. The Director works closely with students and their respective graduate programs and faculty to ensure all reasonable accommodations and services are provided. More information about disability accommodations is available at:

English Language Education
Students who are admitted to Northwest University but who need additional help to bring their writing up to the level expected for graduate work may be encouraged or required to enroll in one or more of the following courses. Course descriptions are included at the end of this catalog, and course scheduling, registration, and cost details are available through the student’s respective graduate office.

- LANG 4912 Graduate ESL Research Writing (two undergraduate semester credits)
- LANG 4922 Graduate ESL Grammar (two undergraduate semester credits)
- LANG 4932 Advanced Aural/Oral Skills (two undergraduate semester credits)

Financial Aid Office
Located on the second floor of the Randall K. Barton Building, the Financial Aid Office assists students with any questions regarding student account balances, payments, and charges. Contact them at 425.889.5326 or studentaccounts@northwestu.edu.

Information Technology
Students are encouraged to bring their own computer for use on campus. Every student is expected to use the Northwest University Email system that is provided. All enrolled students are included in our Microsoft software agreement. Terms of this agreement are available on the Information Technology page on the Eagle Website. All enrolled students are also required to abide by the University Information Technology Acceptable Use Policy as posted on the Information Technology page on the Eagle Website.

On the Kirkland campus, computers are available for student use in Argue HSC 252/254, Hurst 214, Barton 114, the Rice Hall Lobby, the College of Business (Barton 209), the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (North 6710 236), and throughout the Hurst Library. The Hurst 214 computer lab is open 24/7.

International Student Services
Northwest University provides assistance to all international students through the International Student Services (ISS) Office. The ISS Office is located in the lower level of the Hurst Library. The ISS staff is available to assist international students with support in a variety of ways including immigration concerns, academic affairs, cultural matters, moral support and encouragement in the adjustments that often accompany life in another culture.

Security Office
Northwest University has security personnel available for assistance 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to provide and encourage security, safety, education and personal responsibility. Through officer patrolling and community involvement Campus Security endeavors to protect the people who study, teach and serve as part of the Northwest University community. More information including campus crime and fire statistics is available on the Security web page at http://www.northwestu.edu/security/.

Student Financial Services Office
Located on the second floor of the Randall K. Barton Building, the Student Financial Services Office assists students with any questions regarding student account balances, payments, and charges. Contact them at 425.889.5326 or studentaccounts@northwestu.edu.

Vehicles
Parking permits are required for all students who park vehicles on our campuses. Students may purchase a permit online at http://www.northwestu.edu/security for $70 plus sales tax per academic year. Violation of vehicle regulations may result in fines and/or cancellation of the permit. It is expected that students bringing cars on campus will have them properly insured and properly licensed with the state in which they are registered.

The Wellness Center
Alumni students may use the Wellness Center services on a per session fee basis of $30. Services provided include individual counseling, couple counseling, crisis intervention, support groups, primary healthcare, women’s healthcare, sport’s physicals, treatment for both acute and chronic medical conditions, nutrition consultations, and health and wellness coaching. For a detailed list of services, please visit the Wellness Center website. Appointments can be scheduled by contacting the Wellness Center at Ext. 5282. The Wellness Center is located in the Everette D. Greeley Center, Building #5. Hours of service are posted on the Wellness Center web page. For health care needs requiring immediate attention that occur outside of the Wellness Center’s office hours, please refer to the Wellness Center’s website for a list of local medical facilities that provide 24-hour response.

Financial Information

Payment of Accounts
The total cost of each term is based upon the total number of credits taken that term. It is the policy of the University that there can be no outstanding past due accounts at registration. All past due and old accounts must be settled or alternate arrangements must be agreed upon with the Student Financial Services Office prior to registering for the following term. Negotiated arrangements for paying anything other than the full amount must be established prior to registration. The Payment of Accounts Policy also applies to those qualifying for veteran’s benefits and outside scholarships.

Pay In Full Plan
Tuition, fees, and semester housing charges are to be paid in full before the first day of classes each semester. All students must sign a contract/promissory note agreeing to the payment conditions prior to program enrollment.

Monthly Payment Plan: Tuition Management System (TMS)
Tuition Management System (TMS) - Students who wish to make monthly payments based on the annual cost of tuition, housing and fees will enroll with Tuition Management System. TMS is a budgeting service that allows the student to pay an entire year’s education costs in monthly installments. They provide an annual ten or nine month payment plan to help students manage the cost of education. A single semester plan is also available, if necessary.

A budget is set up with this agency based on estimated charges less estimated financial aid (including loans) for the entire academic year/semester. The first payment must be received by TMS not later than July 1 (10 pay plan) or August 1 (9 pay plan) of each year to enroll for this option. Those enrolling with TMS after August 1 include June and/or July payments with their application. Although there is a $125.00 annual enrollment fee for this plan, there are no finance charges to non-delinquent participants.

Educational Benefits
Northwest University is approved as an educational institution for the training of veterans or their dependents. Applications are available on the Department of Veterans Affairs website at www.gibill.va.gov. Those qualifying under the extended Social Security Act should apply for benefits at their local offices of the Social Security Administration. The University will make the proper certifications as to enrollment and attendance after the student has enrolled in the University.

Any veteran receiving GI Bill benefits while attending Northwest University is required to obtain transcripts from all previously attended schools and submit them to the school for review of prior credit.

Late Fees
Northwest will charge late fees as follows: For balances between $0.00 and $25.00, the late fee will be zero. For balances $25.01 and over a 1.5% late fee not to exceed $100.

TMS - Tuition Management system will assess a $55.00 late fee for each late payment made on the monthly plan established at the beginning of the school year/semester the student is attending. Please contact TMS for further details.

Past Due Accounts
A student is considered past due if:

- payments are not made by the dates on which they are due.
- financial aid is not credited to the student’s account by the due date as specified in the promissory note (typically the last business day of the month following registration).
- any charges, which were not included in the payment plan, still owe on the last business day of the month in which they were charged.

Students failing to meet the payment schedule will be contacted through campus mail and by telephone by the Student Financial Services Office. The student may also be contacted by campus registered mail and Northwest University personnel which may include staff from the Student Development Office and/or professors. Efforts to communicate will be made for a period of approximately 45 days.

If, after these efforts are accomplished and it is clear that the student is aware that payments are delinquent, reasonable attempts to address the financial obligations have not been made, the student will no longer be allowed meal card privileges, and/or Internet privileges.

If the financial problems persist, on-campus resident students will no longer be allowed to live in on-campus housing, and may be suspended from class until a solution is reached between the Student Financial Services Office and the student. Students failing to respond will be withdrawn from the University by the Provost.

Since financial responsibility is part of the educational process, the Student Financial Services Office encourages students to meet and counsel with the University personnel any time a financial problem arises. Many problems may be avoided and/or resolved with communication. Communication is the key to successful fiscal responsibility.

The University reserves the right to assign delinquent accounts to an agency for collection and/or attach student’s credit report. The venue of defaulted Federal Perkins Student Loans shall be in King County, State of Washington or as determined by the holder of the defaulted Promissory Note.

Cancellation of Registration

The Registration Cancellation policy applies to all semesters. Note that private music lesson fees (after the contract is signed); Trip Fees for the MA in International Community Development Orientation Trip, and cancellation penalties may not be indicated below. Housing charges will be prorated for the days occupied based on the percentages below under “Withdrawal from University Housing”. See the Academic Calendar or specific program pages at eagle.northwestu.edu for the applicable First Day of Class.

Cancellation of Registration – A student who registers for class but decides not to attend must notify the Registrar’s Office in writing before the end of business on the Last day of the Add/Drop period. Proper notification will cancel the tuition and related charges.

Cancellation after Add/Drop period if any classes were attended – Considered a Withdrawal from University – see next section.

Withdrawal from the University

Adjustments will be made on the accounts of students who withdraw from the University during the term; however, the outcome is subject to the following conditions:

- The student must have officially withdrawn from the University.
- Fees are nonrefundable.
- Tuition is charged based upon the highest number of credits during the term and will be charged according to the specific program schedule and start dates.
- Required tuition charges specific to your graduate program should be discussed with the Student Financial Services Office; financialservices@northwestu.edu

Withdrawals from University – Administrative

If a student is absent from all classes for more than two weeks consecutively without contacting the Registrar’s or Provost’s Office to explain the reason for his or her absences, the University has the authority to administratively withdraw the student from all course enrollments and to assign grades of “F” to each course. In this case, the official withdrawal date for financial obligation purposes will be two weeks after the last date of class attendance as certified by faculty and verified by the Registrar’s Office.

GRADING AND GRADE POINT AVERAGES

Grade Points
Northwest University desires to provide students with an honest evaluation of their performance, not only in relation to other students in a particular course, but also in relation to the academic standards generally expected at institutions of higher education. To that end, and especially as a Christian university, we approach grading with a focus on the values of integrity, truth-telling, and respect. In the assigning of grades, these values apply not only to the relationship of the faculty member to the individual student, but also to the relationship of Northwest University to larger communities – social, regulatory, business, religious, and academic. Consequently, Northwest University seeks to uphold a grading system that carefully differentiates and provides an honest assessment of student performance, recognizes truly exceptional achievement, and maintains University credibility.

Grade Point Average
A student’s grade point average (GPA) is determined by dividing the total number of grade points earned during a given period by the number of credits for which the student was enrolled and received a regular grade during the same period. Students’ semester grade point average (SGPA) and cumulative grade point average (CGPA) are calculated and reported each semester. For example:

1st Semester:
- 15 credits attempted
- 47 grade points earned
  SGPA = 3.133 (47/15 = 3.133)
  CGPA = 3.133 (47/15 = 3.133)

2nd Semester:
- 17 credits attempted
- 50 grade points earned
  SGPA = 2.941 (50/17 = 2.941)
  CGPA = 3.031 (97/32 = 3.031)

3rd Semester:
- 17 credits attempted
- 65 grade points earned
  SGPA = 3.824 (65 / 17 = 3.824)
  CGPA = 3.306 (162 / 49 = 3.306)

Academic Progress towards Graduation
Each graduate program establishes its own guidelines and requirements to insure students demonstrate sufficient mastery of course material. Although overall end-of-program requirements always exist, most programs also have incremental course-by-course limits. These might specify minimum course grades, which if not met means the course must be repeated. The program might require an overall cumulative average for program courses. Consult the respective graduate program section for details.

Academic Probation
Students who fail to maintain a satisfactory academic progress towards graduation are placed on Academic Probation. Probation is a temporary status intended to help focus the student’s effort while concentrating the program’s resources to address and remedy the causes of insufficient academic progress. Probation is not intended as a punitive measure but as a warning and a time for necessary improvement. Probation, however, could lead to further academic penalties and financial aid restrictions as deemed necessary by the program. Consult the respective graduate program section for details.

Course Repeat
Should a student desire to repeat a course for the purpose of raising his or her grade, the student must obtain prior permission from their program. Re-registration for the course is required, depending on the respective program, and there is a re-registration cost. The latest completed course grade is considered the grade of record as it pertains to credit toward graduation and to the official transcript. (A grade of “W” is not considered a completed course grade.) Graduate programs may have a higher GPA graduation requirement that must be met, but in no case will a student graduate with a CGPA below 2.0.

Grade Reports
Grade reports are made available to all students following the close of each term via the online web site.

Incomplete Grades
A student may request an Incomplete Grade for reasons of illness or emergency. A written request for an Incomplete must be submitted to and approved by the professor of the course before the end of the course. The Incomplete must be completed by the end of the fourth week of the following course session. In the interim time period, the grade of “I/default grade” will be posted on the student’s transcript. At the conclusion of the four week time period, the incomplete grade will be updated by the professor or convert to the current grade reported by the professor.
Enrollment Certifications
The Registrar’s Office certifies official enrollment verifications after the Last Day to Add/Drop Courses.

Full-Time/Part-Time Enrollment Status
Enrollment status is an important issue and is based on the amount of assigned and expected work contained in the program classes. Accrediting agencies stipulate that a full-time enrollment status equates to a student working on course-related assignments between 40-45 hours each week, hence the term “full-time.” Because each graduate program is unique and has established expected student research and assignment workloads, the number of credits involved in determining enrollment status varies between programs. Financial Aid is awarded based on the enrollment status of students following the information below for each program. By Department of Education regulations, no financial aid is available for students who are registered for less than half-time. Consult the Financial Aid Office for specific questions regarding the program of interest.

Center of Leadership Studies:

- Full-Time = 9 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 7 or 8 credits;
- Half-Time = 6* credits

College of Business:

- Full-Time = 6 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 5 credits;
- Half-Time = 4 credits

College of Education – MIT; MA-TESOL:

- Full-Time = 9 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 7-8 credits;
- Half-Time = 6* credits

College of Education – Master of Education:

- Full-Time = 9 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 6-8 credits;
- Half-Time = 5* credits

College of Ministry:

- Full-Time = 9 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 7 or 8 credits;
- Half-Time = 6* credits

School of Nursing:

- Full-Time = 9 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 7-8 credits;
- Half-Time = 6* credits

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences – MA-
Counseling Psychology; MA-Clinical Mental Health
Counseling; Psy.D.-Counseling Psychology:

- Full-Time = 9 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 7 or 8 credits;
- Half-Time = 6* credits

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences – MA-
International Community Development:

- Full-Time = 8 credits;
- Three-Quarter Time = 6-7 credits;
- Half-Time = 5 credits

*Exception: graduate students enrolled in their respective graduate program’s thesis, dissertation, or internship course will be considered as registered as a half-time student.

Most graduate programs are based on a cohort system, and attending part time usually is not a readily available option. (Consult the applicable portion of this catalog for specific program enrollment options.) For this reason, a student is responsible for all complications (concerning the availability of required courses or the ability to meet graduation requirements, for example) that may occur should, for emergency reasons, he or she need to attend less than full time.

A student must have the permission of their program in order to enroll for fewer than the required credits in any given term during the course of the program, and that option may not be available. Should a student take less than a full-time academic load in any semester, either due to transferring credits or emergency reasons, his or her financial aid may be affected.

Course Sequence and Program Progression

For some graduate programs, the sequence of courses is critical to the complete educational and professional experience. Additionally, many graduate programs are designed to rely heavily on the student cohort model. Thus, students are expected to enroll in every predetermined course scheduled each term. Electives are extra, optional, and made available only with a sufficient number of requests. In an emergency situation, a student may be allowed to postpone, drop, or withdraw from one or more courses. In some programs, in order to preserve all cohorts, the student may be required to make up all missed mandatory courses in an independent study format and to pay the associated independent study fee in addition to the cost of tuition. A student will very seldom be integrated into another cohort. In every situation the format in which the student will make up the course(s) is up to the determination of the respective graduate program office. In addition, should a student decide in conjunction with the graduate program office to take fewer courses per semester than the required course sequence entails, the student must complete the entire program within four years from the program start date for master’s students and within seven years for doctoral students, or he or she may no longer be allowed to continue in the program. Graduate students are completely responsible to complete their program within the allotted timeframe.

Another consideration when deferring courses is that complications arise when the deferred class is a prerequisite for a subsequent course. Courses cannot be taken unless all prerequisites are fulfilled, and it is the student’s complete responsibility to verify that all prerequisites are met before enrolling in any course. Also, any complications that may occur should he or she postpone, drop, or withdraw from a mandatory course are the student’s complete responsibility. The student must confer with their graduate program office when deciding to postpone, drop, or withdraw from a mandatory course.

Should a student defer enough courses to put him or her below the number of credits required to meet full-time or half-time equivalency, financial aid eligibility may be affected. See the section on Full-Time/Part-Time Status.

Class Attendance
Classes are conducted to help students develop their skills and knowledge. Students’ attendance is assumed. If absences occur, the student is responsible for missed work. Because classes differ, individual instructors state their specific attendance policies and define the consequences of absence, tardiness, and early exiting in the course syllabus. Appeals relating to attendance are addressed first to the instructor and second to the respective graduate program office.

Dropping a Course
In an emergency situation, and before the student attends the first class of the semester, he or she may drop a course by submitting a Request Registration Change Form to the Registrar’s Office. The tuition paid for that class will then be reimbursed in full. After the Last Day to Drop a Course for the respective program, courses cannot be added or dropped, and tuition will not be reimbursed. Dropped courses do not appear on a student’s transcript.

Withdrawing from a Course
After the Last Day to Drop a Course has passed, a student can only withdraw from a course and will receive no tuition reimbursement. In this event, the course remains on the transcript as a part of the academic record with a “W” (Withdrawal). Withdrawals must be completed prior to the end of the course withdrawal period for the respective graduate program. The student’s GPA is not affected by a withdrawal. However, financial aid eligibility may be affected. In order to withdraw from a course one must submit a Request Registration Change Form to the Registrar’s Office prior to the deadline.

Withdrawing from the Program
In order to withdraw from all courses and from the University, students must submit a Request Registration Change Form to the Registrar’s Office. If it is impossible to follow this procedure due to some emergency, the Registrar must be notified within one week of the student leaving.

Auditing Courses
An auditor is a person who attends a class but is not held responsible for the course work. Out of courtesy, the auditor should not participate in discussions except as allowed in consultation with the professor. An audited class requires the prior permission of the course’s graduate program office and a Request to Audit form completed and submitted to the Registrar’s Office. A special Audit Fee is required. Online courses are not available for Audit.

Transferring Credits from Other Institutions
Northwest University’s academic calendar is formatted on a semester basis. A credit transferred into Northwest from a college operating on a quarter-calendar is equivalent to 2/3 of a semester credit. Thus, one can translate quarter credits to semester credits by dividing the quarter credits by 1.5.

Master’s students are allowed to transfer a maximum of six to eighteen graduate credits, while doctoral students are allowed to transfer a maximum of 20 credits, from other regionally accredited colleges and universities. Specific credit maximums, requirements, and exceptions are explained in the respective program section of this catalog. In order to determine credit equivalency by comparing the desired course(s) to be transferred with the desired course requirements to be fulfilled, the following are considered: the number of credits per each course, the equivalency of the units (for example, if the credits are based upon quarter units instead of semester units), the content of each course, and the student’s earned grade in the course to be transferred.

In order for the transfer of credits to occur it is the student’s responsibility to contact the respective graduate office to initiate the process. In all cases an official transcript must be received, evaluated by the graduate office, and approved by the dean. This must be done prior to registering for any courses in the program to prevent granting credit twice for the same course. There is no charge for transferred courses and transferred credits do not apply towards financial aid awards.

Academic Honesty
Northwest University has intentionally developed a learning community that includes Academic Honesty as a foundational value and expects honesty from faculty and students in all areas, including academic lives.

Northwest University considers dishonest academic conduct by students to include any activity that allows a student to take an unfair advantage of fellow students. Examples of academic dishonesty by students include the following:

- Cheating on assignments or examinations.
- Submitting material that has been prepared by someone else or failure to give full credit to material prepared by someone else (plagiarism). Plagiarism is defined as “using someone else’s ideas or phrasing and representing those ideas or phrasing as our own, either on purpose or through carelessness” (MLA).
- Arranging for another person to serve as test-taker.
- Seeking help from another person or source during a test in which collaboration is not permitted.
- Submitting the same (or essentially the same) paper in more than one course without prior consent of the current assigning professor(s).
- Making false statements in order to acquire special consideration from an instructor.
- Sabotaging another student’s work.

Additionally, for faculty, academic dishonesty included unduly altering a student’s grade or awarding points when not earned.

The Academic Honesty policy functions at Northwest University on an honor basis so faculty and staff agree to academic integrity standards upon hire and acknowledge willingness to enforce the policy and report misconduct. Academic dishonesty may result in the student failing the assignment, receiving an “F” in the course, or possibly being dismissed from the University. Instances of academic dishonesty are typically reported to the Provost’s Office. Any student disciplined by a faculty member for alleged academic dishonesty has the right to appeal the disciplinary action. The student should initiate his/her appeal according to procedures outlined in the Northwest University Student Academic Appeals Policy, which is available in the Provost’s Office or the Student Development Office.

Anti-Plagiarism Software

When academic dishonesty occurs, the teaching-learning process is undermined and students rob themselves of the educational benefit intended by the assignment. To assist students and faculty, Northwest University is utilizing Turnitin.com, an online plagiarism detection service that conducts textual similarity review of submitted papers. When papers are submitted to Turnitin.com, the service will retain a copy of the submitted work in the Turnitin database for the sole purpose of detecting plagiarism in future submitted works. Students retain copyright of their original work.

Academic Appeals

Student Responsibility and Expectations: A student is expected to relate to the standards of his/her graduate program and to the individual professor’s classroom regulations and course expectations in a positive way. Students must be courteous toward the professor and refrain from conduct which disrupts the learning process. If a student has a grievance against a professor with regard to a grade received, a discipline received for academic dishonesty, or other teacher action affecting the student’s standing, the student shall first respectfully speak to the professor concerning the situation.

The Academic Appeals Process: If an acceptable resolution is not reached between the student and the professor, or if the student finds the professor unapproachable, the student should speak to the graduate program dean (or applicable associate dean). Again, if an acceptable resolution is not reached or if the professor is the dean, the student may appeal to the Provost. A form for this purpose (Student Petition for General Academic Matters) is available on the web site of the Office of the Provost.

If the matter still remains unresolved, the student will have seven days to request (in writing to the Provost) a hearing by the Academic Affairs Committee (the University’s highest academic consideration committee). Instructions for this process are found in the Student Academic Appeals Policy which is available from the Office of the Provost.

Electronic Communication

Students will need access to high speed internet to support interaction in classes and with their program leadership. Student also must have access to and use the most recent version of Microsoft Word (available to students from the Northwest Bookstore at a significant discount).

It is essential that students understand the nature and scope of electronic communications in their graduate program. Nearly all communication between students and their graduate office, all administrative forms management, course management and reporting, and cohort information are conducted through electronic means. Graduate programs have important information on the following Northwest University websites:

- the “eagle” website: http://eagle.northwestu.edu/academic
- the main university website: http://www.northwestu.edu/graduate
- the course management system’s website: https://discovery.northwestu.edu

Each of these provide pertinent and helpful information for course-related matters such as syllabi, grades, testing and for submitting papers, as well as updates and announcements regarding special program offerings and servings provided by the student’s graduate office. All graduate students are assigned a Northwest University e-mail account prior to the start of the first course. Students are required to use such as the primary means of communication for issues related to academic, advising and student services. Students are able to access and download the various management tools necessary for a wide variety of tasks inside and outside of the classroom.

Solicitation and Confidentiality

Since graduate classes and cohorts provide a warm and inviting environment conducive to fostering close student relationships, respect and care for such relationships and all information disclosed by students over the course of the program must be preserved. Therefore, students should keep all student information, including student contact information, completely confidential. Students are prohibited from using student contact information and student mailboxes for solicitation purposes of any kind. In addition, students are not obligated to disclose any information, including contact information, to other students.

Campus Alert System and Emergency Closure Notification Procedures

In the case of an emergency or class cancellation due to weather the University’s Campus Alert system will send out emergency text messages directly to student and employee cell phones. You can sign up for this service by going to the Eagle website at eagle.northwestu.edu and clicking on the “Campus Alerts Tab.” You can also call the main Northwest University phone line at 425.822.8266.

STUDENT RECORDS

Transcripts

An official copy of a student’s academic record at Northwest University that bears the official seal of the University and the signature of the Registrar is referred to as a transcript. Requests for transcripts must be accompanied by the student’s signature and a $5.00 fee for each copy. Phone orders for transcripts cannot be accepted.

NOTE: Financial indebtedness to the University will prevent the release of a student’s transcript. If a student is delinquent (as determined by the Promissory Note) in his/her Federal Perkins Student Loan or NDSL payment, he or she will not be eligible to receive deferment, cancellation provisions, nor will academic transcripts be released.

Since the Registrar can only verify the authenticity of course work earned at Northwest University, transcripts entrusted to the University from other institutions cannot be duplicated and given to the student or other external individuals without the expressed written permission of the institution and the student.

Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 specifies and protects students’ rights and privileges concerning their records and information. Be aware of your following rights:

The Right to Prevent Disclosure – You have the right to prevent disclosure of educational records to third parties with certain limited exceptions. It is the intent of this institution to limit the disclosure of information contained in your educational records to those instances when prior written consent has been given to the disclosure, as an item of directory information of which you have been refused to permit disclosure, or under the provisions of FERPA which allow disclosure without prior written consent.

The Right to File a Complaint with the U.S. Department of Education – You have the right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education if this institution fails to comply with FERPA. Do so by contacting:

Department of Education

The Family Policy and Regulations Office

U.S. Department of Education

400 Maryland Ave. SW

Washington D.C. 20202

The Right to Inspect – You have the right to review and inspect substantially all of your educational records maintained by or at this institution.

The Right to Obtain Policy – You have the right to obtain a copy of Northwest University’s written FERPA policy. A copy may be obtained through the Registrar’s Office in person or by mail. Do so by contacting:

Registrar’s Office

Northwest University

P.O. Box 579

Kirkland, WA 98083-0579

The Right to Request Amendment – You have the right to seek to have corrected any parts of an educational record in which you believe to be inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of your rights. This includes the right to a hearing to present evidence that the record should be changed if this institution decided not to alter the educational records according to your request.

PROGRAM COMPLETION, GRADUATION, AND COMMENCEMENT PARTICIPATION

Course Completion

Northwest graduates students three times a year: early May, late August, and late December. The graduation date should not be confused with the public Commencement Ceremony that occurs in late April or early May, described below. Each graduating student must complete all required coursework, credit hours, and maintain all GPA requirements prior to graduation. (Because several graduate programs utilize the summer semester as their final semester, some programs’ students are allowed to participate in commencement ceremonies as long as their degrees will be completed by the end of the summer semester following commencement.) Since the awarding of a degree certifies that the student has met all requirements, students who have not met these requirements will be reclassified as graduating the following term, provided the requirements are met by that time.
Degree Requirements

All requirements must be completed prior to graduation. Incomplete courses are not considered completed. Candidates who receive an incomplete grade in a course required for graduation will have their application reclassified to the next term. The catalog requirements in effect during the term in which the student first enrolled are applicable, provided graduation is within four years from the end of that term for master’s students and within seven years for doctoral students.

Students who have previously completed a master’s degree at Northwest University and wish to complete a second master’s degree must:

1. Earn at least half of the total number of credits for the second degree and
2. Complete all required courses of the second master’s degree.

Residency Requirements

Residency refers to the coursework completed in the student’s respective graduate program. Specific requirements and exceptions are explained in the respective program section of this catalog.

Student Responsibility

While the University provides advisement services to its students through the graduate program offices, the Registrar’s Office, and other sources, the final responsibility rests with the student to fulfill all requirements for graduation, including those identified in an official program audit. This includes requirements resulting from program modifications affecting course offerings as may be adopted by the University and/or by the respective graduate program.

Commencement Participation

All eligible applicants for graduation must submit their Intent to Participate form six weeks prior to commencement ceremonies. Participation is restricted to the academic year of the awarded degree. No one will be presented as graduating at a public commencement ceremony if they have not satisfied each graduate program’s requirements (refer to individual program for specific requirements). The Registrar’s Office requests clarification for outstanding credits during the spring semester and must certify to the Provost that students will have satisfied all graduation requirements. Only the Provost can allow students to participate in commencement with outstanding requirements.

Honor Societies

Psi Chi – Psi Chi is the National Honor Society in Psychology, founded in 1929 at Yale University. The purpose of Psi Chi is to encourage, stimulate, and maintain excellence in scholarship.
DUAL DEGREES

Purpose of Dual Degrees
Northwest University, having recognized the possibility of shared features between certain of our graduate programs, has created dual degree programs that will serve a select constituency of students wishing to embrace a broader academic experience.

The College of Ministry in conjunction with the College of Education and the College of Business has created the following dual degree programs:

- Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership with Master of Business Administration
- Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership with Master in Teaching
- Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership with Master of Education

Moreover, we recognize that individual degree programs undergo episodic curricular revision and so both academic departments involved in the delivery of a specific dual degree program will remain in close communication with each other when either individual degree program is undergoing curricular changes that could affect the program and delivery of the dual degrees.

Programmatic Distinctive of Dual Degrees
There are some distinct differences in the nomenclature of “dual” vs. “joint” degrees that require clarification. Here are some of the essential programmatic features of a dual degree should be viewed:

- A dual degree is a combined program whereby at the completion, a student will earn two master’s degrees (not one).
- Students enrolled in a dual degree program must complete the entire prescribed program as stated in order to earn the dual degrees.
- Students wishing to enroll in the dual degree program must meet all programmatic prerequisites as well as gain admission to both degree programs.
- Students will be expected to pay all the respective tuition and fees corresponding to both degree programs unless otherwise indicated.
- Each program will determine whether or not they wish to have their own thesis or action research, or whether they choose to allow an interdisciplinary capstone experience.
- The curriculum and delivery of each distinct degree remains under the sole jurisdiction of its respective academic unit.
- The individual programs are pursued seriatim, meaning that a student will pursue the prescribed requirements of one program and complete them in their entirety before moving on to the other program. Essentially, we are using a “stackable” delivery format.
FIVE-YEAR BACHELOR’S AND MASTER’S PROGRAM

College .........................Business, Education, Ministry, Social & Behavioral Sciences

Academic Awards ..........Master of Arts, Master of Business Administration, Master of Education, Master in Teaching, Master in Ministry, Bachelor of Arts

The five-year approach to completing Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees are accelerated programs that allow a student to begin taking graduate courses during their junior and senior years, applying those credits to both their undergraduate major and the graduate degree. The student is then able to complete the remainder of the graduate program in the following 12 to 18 months, thus eliminating approximately one year of college tuition.

Students will have the opportunity to complete up to 18 graduate level credits as part of this program. Depending on individual graduate program requirements, students may be limited to completion of 12 graduate credits as an undergraduate. In addition, students will be limited to 6 graduate credits each semester.

In order to be prepared for graduate level work, students will need to have previously demonstrated a high level of academic capacity. Due to differences in delivery models, students will need to work closely with their undergraduate academic advisor and the graduate program to select courses and ensure degree requirements are satisfied.

Program Offerings

The following graduate programs will be available for students to choose from:

College of Business: Master of Business Administration

College of Education: Master of Education or Master in Teaching (with approved endorsement-related bachelor’s degrees: Biology, English, Environmental Science, History, Interdisciplinary Studies, Math, Music, Music Ministry, Pastoral Ministry, Psychology)

College of Ministry: Master of Arts in Bible and Theology, Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership, or Master in Ministry

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences: Master of Arts in International Community Development

Notes:

- A minimum of 12 elective credits within an undergraduate degree is typically necessary for completing bachelor’s and master’s degrees within five years.
- Undergraduate students are limited to one online course each semester.
- Students transferring credit will require individual evaluation based on credits completed and degrees pursued.

Requirements

The requirements and expectations for students include (please also see specific program application):

- Apply to the program at the end of sophomore year or beginning of junior year with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.3 or above. Application includes an essay describing interest in program.
- Applicants will be required to meet the eligibility requirements for the graduate program.
- Generally students will take 3-6 graduate level credits and 6-9 undergraduate credits each semester (second semester junior, fall and spring senior years). The junior and senior year credits are charged at the undergraduate tuition rate. All remaining undergraduate credits must be completed at Northwest.
- No more than 18 graduate level credits may be taken while still an undergraduate.
- No more than 6 graduate level credits may be taken during one semester.
- Once students complete all undergraduate courses, they will be charged at the graduate tuition rate for their program.
- Maintain 3.3 GPA during junior and senior year.
- Students take all required courses for graduate program.
- This program is not available to students enrolled in CAPS programs.
- Students will need to replace undergraduate requirements or elective credits with graduate course work. Students can substitute courses for their undergraduate major by taking equivalent graduate level courses listed in the following equivalency tables below.
- Transfer students must complete one semester at NU before applying to this program.
Overview of Degree Requirements

The following reflect how graduate level courses will be applied to undergraduate courses.

A word from the Director.

Lead the Leaders

The Center for Leadership Studies (CFLS) at Northwest University is home to our interdisciplinary Ph.D. and Ed.D. programs in Organizational Leadership. These degrees empower students to develop the theory and skills necessary to lead the leaders of our day.

Graduates are equipped for leadership, consulting, and teaching roles across the fields of education, business, Christian ministry, and beyond. The Center serves to coordinate the contributions of our Colleges to the doctoral programs, and as a support base for our students, facilitating their success and dissertation completion.

Our programs offer small, highly diverse cohorts experiencing an inter-disciplinary model of instruction that produces transformative learning. Every student has the opportunity to choose from Concentrations in Business Leadership and Consulting, Higher Education Leadership, and Leading Ministry Organizations.

The Ph.D. and Ed.D. degrees prepare students for influence at the strategic level across a variety of fields. Our graduates will be writing the books others are reading and guiding the organizations others are copying. These accomplishments will happen the “Northwest Way,” characterized by spiritual vitality, academic excellence and social engagement.

At the CFLS we understand rigorous doctoral training not as an end in itself, but as a means of shaping the future of our key institutions in a Godward direction.

We hope you will join us in that journey!

– Earl Creps, Ph.D., D.Min.
Director, Center for Leadership Studies
Master of Arts in Leadership Studies

Northwest University MA in Leadership Studies prepares graduate students for higher levels of responsible leadership. Our students learn how to lead so they can make a difference in the organizations that they serve.

Academic Progress

Students whose academic histories reflect a GPA below 2.7 (“B” level) may be admitted to the program on academic probation. Students may also be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.0. Students are given one academic term to show improvement and to raise their GPA to at least 3.0, at which point they are removed from probationary status. If the student’s GPA has been below 3.0 for two or more terms, he or she is placed on academic suspension (disqualification). Students must earn at least a 3.0 overall grade point average to graduate.
Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Education
Organizational Leadership

The Center for Leadership Studies (CFLS) is home to Northwest’s interdisciplinary Ph.D. and Ed.D. programs in Organizational Leadership. These degrees prepare students to lead the leaders of our day across the fields of education, business, Christian ministry, and beyond.

The Center coordinates these programs and serves as a support base for our students, facilitating their success and dissertation completion.

Financial Support
The CFLS offers four types of financial assistance. In the first year, every student is eligible for merit-based funding. Non-profit employees can qualify for a discount matching their employer’s contribution. Also, grants are available for dissertation research and travel to professional presentations. View CFLS Scholarships

Two Degree Options
The Ph.D. focuses on scholarship, original research, and the generation of new theory. Our Ed.D. is shorter and more practical, helping students apply existing research to problems in the field.

Three Concentrations
Students have access to three Concentrations: Leading Ministry Organizations, Higher Education Leadership, and Business Leadership and Consulting.

Cohort-based
Our programs offer small, diverse cohorts. Students learn alongside peers who encourage and challenge each other to grow.

Hybrid Delivery
Students study in a mix of classes held on-campus, online, and “on the road” at major, field-specific professional conferences.

Distinguished Faculty
Our professors draw from both academic research and real-world professional experience to offer a holistic learning environment.

Integrated Faith and Learning
The programs integrate a Christian perspective that draws from the highest intellectual level and the depths of faith simultaneously.

Interdisciplinary Instruction
Bringing together diverse students with outstanding professors from a variety of disciplines produces a rich transformative learning experience.

Interlocking Schedule
Each term features Core, Concentration, and Dissertation classes so students are working on their dissertation research and writing skills from day one.

Unique Learning Environment
Northwest is located among many of the most influential business and non-profit organizations of our time, such as Microsoft, Google, Amazon, World Vision, and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.
Admission Criteria

- Master’s degree from a regionally accredited college or university.
- Grade point average (GPA) of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
- Completed online application
- Three references including one academic reference
- Official (sealed) transcripts from all colleges and universities attended
- GRE general test scores (taken within the last 5 years) for the Ph.D. program. Applicants to the Ed.D. are not required to take the GRE.
- Current resume or curriculum vitae (CV)
- Writing sample answering the essay prompts available on the CFLS online application.

Application Deadlines:
- January term due by December 1st;
- July term due by June 1st.

Once potential students have submitted their completed application along with all the application materials, each applicant will have an individual or group interview with the Director of the CFLS.

Applicants who meet or exceed the above criteria must also exhibit qualities consistent with the ethos of the Center for Leadership Studies. The cohort model places great responsibility on faculty and students to work together to create a positive, supportive, and collaborative learning environment. Students must be committed to personal responsibility, time management, professional ethics, and interpersonal integrity to be successful in the program.

The CFLS Admissions Committee seeks to ascertain each student’s degree of readiness for this type of learning environment. It is the responsibility and authority of the Admissions Committee to determine an applicant’s degree of compatibility with the ethos of this program.

Credit Transfer

Students may be allowed to transfer a maximum of 12 graduate credits from other regionally accredited colleges and universities provided the CFLS can determine the credit equivalency of the coursework, and the transfer credits are awarded prior to registering for NU courses. There is no charge for transferred courses and transferred credits do not apply towards financial aid awards. Students must initiate credit transfer by contacting the CFLS office.

Program Transfer

A limited number of Ed.D. students may qualify for transfer to the Ph.D. program each academic year. Transfer applicants must have demonstrated academic excellence, a positive contribution to their cohort, and overall program fit. Transfers will be approved by the CFLS Admissions Committee.

Graduation Requirements

- Completion of all required coursework for Ph.D. or Ed.D.
- Director’s recommendation for continuation in the program after each annual review
- Maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0
- Passing grade for all required comprehensive examinations
- Approval of dissertation proposal and dissertation final document by Dissertation Committee
Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership

Graduates of the Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership program are trained in research methodology and equipped to analyze literature, conduct and publish original research, and apply relevant theories to current issues and field practice. The curriculum for the Ph.D. requires a total of 72 credits. The coursework and dissertation process are structured for full-time students to be able to complete the Ph.D. in four years.

Graduates with a Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership will be able to:

1. Evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of competing leadership theories as applied to current organizational challenges.
2. Conduct high-quality original research that expands organizational leadership theory.
3. Demonstrate effective presentation skills.
4. Cultivate positive interpersonal skills that promote healthy organizations.
5. Articulate a compelling Christian perspective for addressing ethical challenges.
6. Apply leadership theory to the challenge and opportunity of diverse perspectives in organizational settings.

A Word from the Dean:

The College of Business at Northwest University is committed to developing socially responsible leaders for today’s rapidly changing world. We believe the purpose of business is to serve others. Organizations that provide goods and services benefit not just investors, but customers, employees, and the common good. To be effective servants, organizational leaders need competence and integrity. Our MBA is designed for the real world. Our courses prepare working professionals for higher levels of management responsibility, so they will be able to serve their organizations as innovative and effective leaders.

Our MBA has distinct advantages over other programs. In addition to our solid Core Curriculum, our Cohort Model ensures an active learning process. You will engage in experiential learning with your peers, mentored by high quality, caring professors. You will be challenged to consider global perspectives as you study each business discipline. You will develop and refine a variety of relevant management and communication skills. You will learn to think critically about the complexities of management. You will become more competent in your ability to decide and take action. Finally, because we are a private Christian institution, your learning opportunities will be centered in the context of a distinctive, ethically responsible worldview.

If you are ready for a new level of challenge for your professional competencies and character, we invite you to join us.

-- Teresa R. Gillespie, J.D.
Dean, College of Business

Master of Business Administration

Northwest University MBA prepares graduate students for higher levels of responsible leadership. Our students learn how to lead so they can make a difference in the organizations that they serve.

Accreditation

Northwest University’s MBA is accredited by the Accreditation Council of Business Schools and Programs. Accreditation standards are modeled on the Baldrige National Quality Program. Employers find value in knowing that Northwest University uses the same standards as those used by other organizations to recognize excellence.

Admission Requirements

- A Bachelor of Arts or Science (or equivalent degree) from a regionally accredited college or university.
- A minimum 3.0 grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale on all previous college work.
- A qualifying score on the Graduate Admissions Test (GMAT)
  - Northwest University’s Institutional Code is #4541
  - The GMAT is WAIVED for applicants with a master’s degree or a 3.0 undergraduate GPA.
- A completed application.
- International students whose native language is not English must submit a minimum score of 580 (or equivalent) on the TOEFL exam as part of the application process.
- Applicants without an undergraduate course in finance or accounting must take an online tutorial prior to their first MBA finance or accounting course at the start of their second year.
- MBA students may transfer up to 9 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree.

Finance and Accounting Prerequisite for Non-Business Undergraduate majors

All non-business undergraduate students seeking the MBA degree must demonstrate a basic understanding of marketing, management, finance, accounting, economics, and the legal environment of business. The requirement can be met by prior work experience or satisfactory completion of an online tutorial.

- BUSM 5001 Business Foundations Seminar

Work Experience

Work experience as a business professional is necessary for successful completion of the MBA degree. Admitted students without such experience will satisfy this curricular requirement with an internship or graduate practicum.

Academic Progress

Students whose academic histories reflect a GPA below 3.0 (“B” level) may be admitted to the program on academic probation. Students may also be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.0. Students are given one academic term to show improvement and to raise their GPA to at least 3.0, at which point they are removed from probationary status. If the student’s GPA has been below 3.0 for two or more terms, he or she is placed on academic suspension (disqualification). Students must earn at least a 3.0 overall grade point average to graduate.
Master of Business Administration

Courses are offered in two formats: online and on-campus. Each online course lasts for eight weeks. In our on-campus format, students attend class one night per week from 6:00 – 10:00 p.m. for seven weeks, plus one Saturday morning session. In both programs, students take one course at a time. Students also have the option of doing a hybrid program and take both online and on-campus courses.

The MBA’s strong core curriculum covers functional areas of business (operations, marketing, finance) as well as leadership soft skill development and corporate strategy analysis, all in the context of Christian values. Courses are taught in a cohort model in which students start and finish the program together with the same group. The cohort becomes a learning community as well as a trusted support network of friends.

The 39 credits can be completed in 23 months.

5-year BA/MBA

This accelerated, dual-degree program is designed to graduate students with a combined Bachelor of Arts in a Business major and Master in Business Administration (MBA) degree within five years. The combined degrees prepare students for professional careers in business, government or nonprofit organizations. Students begin taking four first-year MBA courses in their senior year and apply those 12 credits to their undergraduate requirements. The student is then able to finish the rest of the MBA in the following year, thus eliminating a year of college tuition.

Requirements:

1. Apply to the program at the beginning of the Junior Year with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.3 or above. Submit an essay describing why they want to be in the program.
2. Generally students will take six MBA credits and six undergraduate credits each semester of their senior year. The senior year credits are charged at the undergraduate tuition rate. All remaining undergraduate credits must be completed at Northwest University. Students may take no more than 15 total credits (MBA and undergrad combined) each semester in their senior year. No more than 12 MBA credits may be taken while still an undergraduate. Once students complete all undergraduate course, they will be charged at the MBA tuition rate as they continue on to MBA courses.
3. Maintain 3.3 Cumulative GPA during their Senior Year.
4. Since professional business experience is required for all MBA students, student in this program will be required to take the MBA Graduate Internship course as one of their electives.
5. Students complete all 39 of the required MBA credits.
6. This program is not available to the Business Management and Organizational Management majors offered in the Adult Evening or Online programs.
7. Since Accounting, Marketing, Music Business, and International Business majors have discrete major requirements, students of these majors will need to substitute elective credits for their MBA course work in their senior year. The Business Administration and Management majors can substitute one or two courses from their undergraduate major.

A word from the Dean:

It is often not difficult to think back to a teacher who made a positive impact on our lives. For me, I immediately think of my fifth-grade teacher, Mr. McElroy. He not only got on the floor with us to play gym hockey each week, he also spoke into our lives on a regular basis. All these years later his voice, encouragement, and belief in me still resonate in my head and in my work. Teaching continues to be one of those vocations where professionals can make a significant impact on young lives and on society at large. In the Northwest University College of Education we prepare learner-centered, adaptive and holistic teachers who help their P-12 students excel academically and as people.

The Master in Teaching (MIT) program prepares post-baccalaureate candidates with strong academic credentials who seek the first level of teacher certification and who demonstrate a high aptitude for scholarship and teaching at the elementary and secondary levels. The MIT is an intensive, eleven-month program focused on building professional experience in area public and private schools, developing best practices aimed at making a positive impact on P-12 students.

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Curriculum and Instruction is a 21-month, continuing education program for certificated teachers and other educators. Candidates focus on a selected area of interest, including concentrations in Educational Assessment, Teacher Leadership, and English Language Learning. In all of our College of Education graduate programs you will learn from faculty with strong academic knowledge and practical classroom experience. Drawing on full-time faculty, as well as adjunct practitioners, candidates are prepared to be educational leaders through rigorous, relevant, and hands-on training.

- Molly Quick, Ph.D.
  Interim Dean, College of Education
General Information

Transfer Credits
College of Education Master’s students may transfer up to 6 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree.

Academic Progress
Undergraduate students whose academic histories reflect a GPA below 3.0 (“B” level) may be admitted to the program on academic probation. Students may also be placed on probation if their GPA falls below 3.0. Students are given one academic term to show improvement and to raise their GPA to at least 3.0, at which point they are removed from probationary status. If the student’s GPA has been below 2.75 for two or more terms, he or she is required to develop a remediation plan; outlining how/when GPA will be increased. Students must earn at least a 3.0 overall grade point average to graduate. These guidelines also apply to Master in Teaching candidates, except that they are required to maintain a 3.3 GPA.

The College of Education offers non-degree support courses for students wishing to pursue their Professional Certificate with the state.

Master of Education: Curriculum and Instruction

The Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Curriculum and Instruction is designed to help practicing teachers and educational professionals take the next step in their professional development. M.Ed. candidates will be prepared to take on greater leadership in their classrooms, schools and districts, growing in their ability to make a positive impact on their schools and students. The M.Ed. program will help you earn a graduate degree in Curriculum and Instruction with one of three concentrations: Teacher Leadership, Data-Driven Assessment, or English Language Learning (ELL).

The five-semester, thirty-credit curriculum offers advanced coursework on learning theory, educational standards, assessment, teacher leadership and collaboration, and family engagement. Courses are offered in two formats: online and on-campus/hybrid. The Northwest University M.Ed. is designed to serve several populations:

- Bachelors graduates holding the Residency Teacher Certificate who seek the M.Ed. degree in Curriculum and Instruction
- Bachelors or masters graduates adding the ELL Endorsement to their Washington State Certificate
- Educators (with or without a Residency Teacher Certificate) who wish to enhance their educational knowledge and skills through one of our three concentrations

(Students complete the Core Curriculum and one Concentration; courses are offered in two formats: online and on-campus.)

Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

Online – Master of Arts in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages

For over 20 years, NU has trained students to work in the field of TESOL. The MA-TESOL will uniquely prepare graduates to work or teach in a variety of intercultural settings or pursue entry to Ph.D. programs.

The 36-credit MA-TESOL program is designed for students who have completed a bachelor’s degree in a variety of disciplines and currently live domestically or internationally. The program will provide students with a foundation in TESOL pedagogy, linguistics, and intercultural studies.

Globally, people use English in diverse contexts, creating high demand for TESOL professionals, particularly individuals who have completed a master’s degree.

The MA-TESOL program combines a cohort-based community approach to learning with an online delivery method. The online Master’s degree serves the needs of students desiring a combination of an interactive learning experience with the flexibility of electronically mediated coursework. The MA-TESOL allows working professionals to remain fully engaged in their career. This format will create a rich environment of teachers who engage with the material and their peers based on their students, classroom location and a variety of experiences including life, teaching, and language learning.

The 36-credit program can be completed in 23 months, taking one or two courses at a time.

Program Highlights

Ethics and Integrity – Because we are a Christian institution, learning opportunities will be centered in the context of a distinctive, ethically responsible worldview. Unique courses in this MA-TESOL program are Language, Culture, and Power, and Globalization; both courses encourage students to consider their potential impact on a larger social scale.

Quality – Professors bring extensive experience teaching in the field of TESOL to this program and prepared carefully designed courses. As a culminating project, each student will write a graduate thesis suitable for publication.

Convenience – Students in the MA-TESOL program will benefit from the convenience of studying through the online format. By taking one or two classes at a time, you can balance work and home responsibilities and complete the degree in less than two years. You can start in fall or spring.

Join a Community – You will not be on your own as you pursue your degree. You start and finish the MA-TESOL with the same group of students. Your cohort will become a support network of trusted friends. You’ll be assigned an advisor to assist you.

International Experience – Students will have the opportunity to conduct their thesis research at an international location.

Relevant Professional Training – Practical courses provide you with real-world insight and skills that you can apply right away.

Qualified and Caring Faculty – The instructors who will teach in this program are highly qualified to serve, as they represent academic preparation from a broad range of content areas and bring to the classroom years of practical experience. Instructors have experience teaching both overseas, and/or in the U.S., and have experience teaching at the university level. Faculty members all have professional experience, in addition to their academic qualifications, and are available to advise and guide students.

Program Admission Requirements:

- A Bachelor of Arts or Science (or equivalent degree) from a regionally accredited college or university
- GRE required only for students with an undergraduate GPA lower than 3.3 (on a 4 point scale).
- Minimum GRE score of 155 on verbal portion of exam (500 on exams prior to August 1, 2011) or MAT score of 400.
- TOEFL score of 90 on the iBT or 580 on the paper-based test required for all non-native English speakers. GRE is waived for applicants with this TOEFL score.
- MA-TESOL students may transfer up to 6 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree.

Academic Progress:

The MA in TESOL communicates mastery of technical skills, so students must demonstrate mastery with a grade of B- or above on all courses taken, including electives. Should a student earn a grade of C+ or below in any class, the student will be placed on academic probation for one semester. In order to replace a grade of C+ or lower, the student will be responsible to pay again for tuition and retake the course. If a student’s grades are below a B- for a second semester the student may be dismissed from the program.

Certificate – Teaching English as a Foreign Language

This short term certificate is designed for those with a BA who plan to teach English as a Foreign Language. Due to the practicum method of instruction, TEFL Certificate students must have access to a language classroom where they can practice the methods and techniques that are discussed. The TEFL Certificate also serves as a ladder into the MA TESOL program. The completed certificate counts toward the Intercultural electives (3 credits) in the MA-TESOL program of study.

Aims
The aims of the TEFL Certificate are:

- To provide the student with introductory exposure to second language acquisition theories and the accompanying teaching methodologies,
- To provide the student with practical curriculum development practice and feedback,
- To allow the student to study and apply second language literacy pedagogy, and
- To allow the student to practice basic EFL assessment strategies in a variety of contexts and on various language skills.

Educational Objectives
Completion of the TEFL Certificate requires the student to demonstrate competencies in:

- Writing and speaking the English language;
- Critical thinking skills used by TEFL instructors;
- Language Acquisition knowledge and reasoning skills applicable to TEFL related fields;
- Basic understanding of foreign language pedagogy and classroom management

A Word from the Dean:

To meet the church’s current and future needs, ministry must be both biblically authentic and culturally relevant, and preparation for Christian ministry must be as thorough as possible and of the highest caliber possible.

The College of Ministry at Northwest University seeks to meet this need by offering continuing in-service education at the master’s degree level for those who are engaged in ministry – pastors, evangelists, missionaries, educators, counselors, and lay workers. We also do an excellent job equipping adults for a second career in ministry and non-profit organizational leadership.

Ministry involves the person of God communicating a divine message to people to achieve divine ends. Those who minister for God must know Him intimately, must be able to exegete His Word accurately, must understand and appreciate the context in which they minister, and must comprehend God’s eternal purpose and be able to relate it to the church and ministry.

These M.A. programs integrate academic experiences, spiritual formation activities, and skills development to enhance intellectual, spiritual, personal, and functional readiness for effective ministry leadership. Our overarching goal is to equip Kingdom leaders for effective service.

- Wayde Goodall, D.Min.
Dean, College of Ministry
Master of Arts in Bible and Theology

The purpose of the Master of Arts in Bible and Theology (MABT) is to enable effective witness and service both within the Christian community and to the larger society. Through exploration of the various influences on contemporary culture and theology, you will come to a better understanding of your own assumptions and those of your faith tradition.

The program encourages development of the necessary understanding and skills for effective engagement with cultural trends, social transformation, and the attendant challenges facing the church. The goal is to develop thinking and practice that is biblically informed and creatively faithful to the historic mission of the Christian faith.

The overall objective of the MABT is to immerse graduate students in an integrated, comprehensive arts approach to theological graduate education that draws from the best of theology, philosophy, history, and biblical studies, thus enabling the student to engage in theological and spiritual reflection within a vibrant, Christian community.

For a full-time student, this program can take as little as two years (24 months), with courses scheduled across three annual terms. The program delivery includes language courses meeting on weeknights and core courses meeting on Friday/Saturday intensives once a month. Three weekends complete one course. During the summer, some elective courses meet in one week block while others meet in Friday/Saturday intensives once a month. This flexible delivery format is designed to accommodate the diverse needs of our graduate students.

Admissions

Admission into the Master of Arts in Bible and Theology requires the completion of a Bachelor of Arts or Science (or an equivalent degree) from a regionally accredited college or university. Allowances may be made for degrees accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE). Students also complete the application and acceptance process for the College of Ministry Graduate School. The College of Ministry has rolling application dates. The application must be completed no later than two weeks prior to the individual class start date.

Credit Transfer

MAML and MABT students may transfer up to 18 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree requirements.

Program Outcomes

In addition to achieving the general goals of the University and the College of Ministry, completing the Master of Arts in Bible and Theology results in the following learning outcomes:

- Students will demonstrate awareness of contemporary culture and theological influences and develop effective engagement with cultural trends, social transformation, and current challenges facing the church.
- Students will further discover their personal faith-beliefs and assumptions while becoming aware of the theological challenges of the day and developing skills to articulate their theological beliefs.
- Students will understand the historic mission of the Christian faith while developing skills in thinking and application both within the church and in other ministry involvements.
- Students will develop skills to enable them to serve as effective, relevant, and unique witnesses within the Christian community and the society at large.

Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership

The purpose of the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership (MAML) is to develop a theoretical framework for understanding leadership, mission and culture, globalization, ethics, motivation, creativity, vision, strategic planning, teamwork, spirituality, and other leadership issues. This program emphasizes the need for Missional leaders to live out the gospel so that it is seen and experienced in community.

The overall objective of the M.A. in Ministry Leadership program is to develop a biblical and theoretical framework for leadership that is both academically rigorous and praxis-oriented, and facilitates the growth and development of ministry leadership for the twenty-first century church. Full time students can finish in 24 months.

Students meet together either in 4-day intensives (typically 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.), or over three weekends (Friday evenings and Saturday all-day), which are spaced roughly one month apart from each throughout a semester.

Admissions

Admission into the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership requires the completion of a Bachelor of Arts or Science (or an equivalent degree) from a regionally accredited college or university. Allowances may be made for degrees accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE). Students also complete the application and acceptance process for the College of Ministry Graduate School. The College of Ministry has rolling application dates. The application must be completed no later than two weeks prior to the individual class start date.

Credit Transfer

MAML students may transfer up to 9 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree.

Program Outcomes

In addition to achieving the general goals of the University and the College of Ministry, completing the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership results in the following learning outcomes:

- Students will develop an understanding of a theological and theoretical framework for leadership, culture, and mission for the present day church.
- Students will develop skills that are both academically rigorous and practical for ministry settings.
- Students will understand and apply technological tools through online and classroom involvements and develop skills to utilize technological developments in today’s ministry opportunities.
- Students will observe skilled leaders – faculty, church leaders, and para-church leaders – and understand present day ministry practices while developing techniques to relevantly apply in today’s church ministries.
- Students will understand spiritual leadership principles, missional strategy, ethics, creativity, vision development, strategic planning, working as a team, and ongoing spiritual formation.

Master in Ministry

The Master in Ministry (MIM) is an online graduate degree offered by the College of Ministry at Northwest University. It will help prepare the graduate student intellectually, spiritually, and functionally for ministry leadership. Reflecting the emphasis of this three-pronged approach, the curriculum is academically rigorous, spiritually enriching, and practical oriented to prepare the student holistically for successful Christian leadership.

The MIM is designed with a delivery system enabling students to complete this degree in sixteen months or (four semesters). Thus, working professionals can remain fully engaged within their profession while furthering their education. Students admitted to the cohort-based program progress together towards completion in a learning community providing a supportive, engaging environment that empowers and reinforces Christian leadership formation. The MIM degree program is specifically targeted for individuals who evidence a divine call on their life and wish to pursue lay or vocational ministry and who already possess an undergraduate degree in a field other than Bible, Theology, Christian Education, or Ministry.

The MIM program seeks to equip Christian leaders intellectually, spiritually, and functionally to successfully:

- Serve as leaders in a variety of Christian leadership contexts including local and para-church ministries
- Engage in biblical and theological reflection especially as it relates to one’s ministry context
- Provide individuals wishing to transition into ministry from a lay background by providing the academic foundation needed to obtain ministerial credentials
- Serve as academic foundation for those wishing to pursue further graduate theological training
- Note: The General Council of the Assemblies of God will accept any graduate theological program offered by the College of Ministry at Northwest University as meeting the academic requirements for ministerial credentials. Students from other denominations will need to check with their respective denominational offices as to the applicability of the MIM for meeting ministerial credential requirements.

Program Outcomes

In addition to achieving the goals of the University and the College of Ministry, the Master in Ministry results in the following learning outcomes:

- Students will develop the skills to serve as leaders in a variety of Christian contexts, including the local church and para-church ministries.
- Students will engage and understand biblical and theological principles to enable them to successfully serve in Christian leadership.
- Students will be prepared to intellectually, spiritually, and functionally become involved in vocational or lay ministry.
- Students will understand academic disciplines, develop spiritual character, and be aware of methods that apply Christian truths in full-time or lay ministry settings.
- Students will develop skills in technology and online formats for MIM courses and understand technological research methods for further educational development.
- Students will establish an academic foundation to further prepare them for graduate training, ministry credentials, or transitioning from lay to professional ministry involvement.

TOTAL: 36 SEMESTER CREDITS
DUAL DEGREES

The MAML/MBA Dual Degree Program
Jointly sponsored by the College of Ministry and the School of Business, the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership (MAML) and the Master of Business Administration (MBA) can be earned as a dual degree whereby students will enroll in both programs and at the completion of the dual degree program the student will be awarded two degrees. The following conditions apply to the MAML/MBA dual degree program:

- Students must be accepted into both degree programs in order to qualify for the dual degree.
- Students enrolled in the dual degree program must take courses in a specified order and sequence in order to complete the requirements of both degree programs in a timely fashion.
- Students enrolling in the dual degree program must pay the appropriate tuition and fees corresponding to each degree program.
- Students enrolled in the dual degree program must complete both programs in order to receive their degrees.
- Students who decide to withdraw from one of the programs have the option of completing the entire remaining degree program with no course reductions.
- Students enrolling in the dual degree program have a curricular overlap that reduces the dual degree credit hours by taking the program concurrently.
- Students who follow the prescribed program of study may be able to complete the program in as little as 36 months.

The dual degree completion will be as follows:
- Students will subsequently enroll in the MBA program and take the program in its entirety.

Potential Audience:
The MAML/MBA degree may be attractive to lead pastors, executive pastors, church administrators, as well as leaders in para-church, or faith-based non-profit organizations who may benefit from the coupling of business and organizational management with the distinctive philosophical undergirding of ministry leadership.

The MAML/MIT Dual Degree Program
Jointly sponsored by the College of Ministry (COM) and the College of Education (COE), the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership (MAML) and the Master of Arts in Teaching (MIT) can be earned as a dual degree whereby students will enroll in both programs and at the completion of the dual degree program the student will be awarded two degrees. The following conditions apply to the MAML/MIT dual degree program:

- Students must be accepted into both degree programs in order to qualify for the dual degree. This includes passing the two state examinations: the Washington Educator Standards Test-Basic (WEST-B) and the Washington Educator Standards Test-Endorsement (WEST-E) in their respective areas as a prerequisite to admission to the dual degree program.
- Students enrolled in the dual degree program must take courses in the specified order and sequence in order to complete the requirements of both degree programs in a timely fashion. Students wishing to “reverse the order” of the program sequence by beginning with the MIT program first will need to gain written approval from the Deans of both programs.
- Students enrolling in the dual degree program must pay the appropriate tuition and fees corresponding to each degree program.
- Students enrolled in the dual degree program must complete both programs in order to receive their degrees.
- Because of faculty staffing, the COM and the COE reserve the right to impose limits on the numbers of dual degree candidates that can be accommodated at any one time.
- Students enrolling in the dual degree program have a curricular overlap that reduces the dual degree credit hours by taking the program concurrently.
- Students who follow the prescribed program of study may be able to complete the program in as little as 27 months.
- Students who decide to withdraw from one of the programs have the option of completing the entire remaining degree program with no course reductions.

The dual degree completion will be as follows:
- Students will subsequently enroll in the MIT program and complete the degree program in its entirety.

Potential Audience:
The MAML/MIT degree may be desirable for individuals wishing to teach in a Christian school in the K-12 sector and incorporate a Christian world view and ministry mindset into the educational setting. Alternatively, church leaders could gain a more sophisticated understanding of educational formation that could be then incorporated into the ministry setting.

The MAML/M.Ed. Dual Degree Program
Jointly sponsored by the College of Ministry (COM) and the College of Education (COE), the Master of Arts in Ministry Leadership (MAML) and the Master of Education degree (M.Ed.) can be earned as a dual degree whereby students will enroll in both programs and at the completion of the dual degree program the student will be awarded two degrees. The following conditions apply to the MAML/M.Ed. dual degree program:

• Students must be accepted into both degree programs in order to qualify for the dual degree.
• Students enrolled in the dual degree program must take courses in the specified order and sequence in order to complete the requirements of both degree programs in a timely fashion. Students wishing to “reverse the order” of the program sequence by beginning with the M.Ed. program first will need to gain written approval from the Deans of both programs.
• Students enrolling in the dual degree program must pay the appropriate tuition and fees corresponding to each degree program.
• Students enrolled in the dual degree program must complete both programs in order to receive their degrees.
• Because of faculty staffing, the COM and the COE reserve the right to impose limits on the numbers of dual degree candidates that can be accommodated at any one time.
• Students enrolling in the dual degree program have a curricular overlap that reduces the dual degree credit hours by taking the program in dual degree configuration.

• Students who follow the prescribed program of study may be able to complete the program in as little as 39 months.
• Students who decide to withdraw from one of the programs have the option of completing the entire remaining degree program with no course reductions.

The dual degree completion will be as follows:

• Students will subsequently enroll in the M.Ed. program and complete the degree program in its entirety.
• Students will do an action research project that is interdisciplinary in scope but that meets the requirements of both the MAML and the M.Ed. program. In this case, the action research chair must be drawn from approved faculty from the COE. An additional committee member will be drawn from the COM. The COM faculty member is subject to the approval of the COE action research chair.

Potential Audience:
The MAML/M.Ed. may be desirable for individuals wishing to teach in a Christian school in the K-12 sector and incorporate a Christian world view and ministry mindset into the educational setting.
A Word from the Dean:

An enduring part of the philosophy held by the Mark and Huldah Buntain School of Nursing is the core belief that God is the source of all truth, power, and life.

Life-long professional learning is a hallmark indicating the quality and excellence required of all nurses. It begins as the learner enters nursing, and remains a strategic force throughout the nurse’s lifetime of professional practice. The Buntain School of Nursing emphasizes life-span learning as a means to remain current and at mastery in professional nursing leadership and service.

- Carl Christensen, Ph.D.
Dean, School of Nursing
Mark and Huldah Buntain School of Nursing
Master of Science in Nursing

Mission Statement: The Buntain School of Nursing of Northwest University prepares graduates to answer their call to serve God throughout the world and lead others by using their professional expertise as nurses.

Offering of the MSN degree is pending approval by the Washington State Nursing Care Quality Assurance Commission

Program Learning Outcomes

Scholarly Inquiry
1. Research Methodology: Formulate research questions and hypotheses and determine appropriate research methods that support reliable findings and valid conclusions.
2. Informatics as a lens: Search available data sets for trends and associations that guide the formulation of effective and efficient health care initiatives.
3. Focused clinical exploration: Demonstrate clinical competence rooted in study of the assessment, physiology, pathophysiology, research, and clinical guidelines of a nursing clinical area of focus.

Servant Leadership
4. Ethical debate: Write and provide a scholarly defense for a set of personal ethical and spiritual guidelines for servant leadership in an array of settings and moral dilemmas.
5. Cultural humility: Integrate cultural understanding and sensitivity into health communications, assessments, interventions, programs, and policy in order to lead diverse groups toward the achievement of optimal health outcomes.
6. Educational expertise: Lead others toward wellness and social good through the employment of curriculum development and pedagogical approaches that are sensitive to the developmental, cultural, and motivational characteristics of the target audience.
7. Policy and advocacy: Conceptualize and lead efforts to enhance health-related, public policy.

Outcome Orientation
8. Quality and Safety Improvement: Identify opportunities for quality improvement, safety promotion, and risk management and propose systematic approaches to implement continuous quality improvement efforts.
9. Evidence-based practice: Be adept at finding evidence and applying research recommendations that produce healthy outcomes.

Innovation
10. Research utilization: Apply research recommendations to health care delivery situations and subsequent research agendas.
11. Concept adaptation: Assess the applicability of innovations from different settings and disciplines to current health care delivery opportunities and propose means by which to adapt innovations to new health care settings.
12. Technology utilization: Apply and evaluate the efficacy of technology to the achievement of health goals.

Admission
All students complete an application to Northwest University as part of the admission requirements to the Buntain School of Nursing (BSoN). Prior to admission, students must have:

- A valid, current, and unrestricted license to practice as a Registered Nurse in one or more jurisdiction of the United States.
- A valid, current, and unrestricted license to practice as a Registered Nurse is required within the State where clinical practice experiences are going to be conducted.
- A national criminal background check to confirm the absence of convictions that would limit practice as a Registered Nurse.
- A minimum of 18 months of nursing practice.
- An official transcript from a baccalaureate nursing program, which is accredited by a nursing accrediting agency fully recognized by the national government.
- A GPA of 3.00 or higher in a BSN Degree program. Students with averages below this level will be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- Successfully completed a 3-semester credit or equivalent college level course in statistics. (MATH 2003 Introduction to Statistics is available through NU Online courses)
Transfer Credits
- Buntain School of Nursing students may transfer up to 6 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree requirements.

Progression
The university catalog and course syllabi prescribe specific standards of academic performance. A course average grade below 80% (B- or 2.7 grade point average on a 4.0 scale) is unacceptable for progression in the Buntain School of Nursing program and unacceptable for graduation. Graduate students are required to maintain a GPA of 3.00 or better through the nursing coursework. This demonstrates a successful synthesis of the course content. Students who fall below a 3.0 GPA may be allowed to progress in the curriculum cycle, but will be placed on academic probation and need to repeat the course prior to entering NURS 5913 Scholarly Project.

Some students may need additional 8-week periods to complete NURS 5913 Scholarly Project. The program is designed to help students make progress on the Scholarly Project in each course taken in the program. Thus, we hope that a delay in completion will be the exception and not the rule. The Master of Science in Nursing students may continue working on their Scholarly Project by registering for successive one-credit courses for up to six months after completion of all other MSN courses.

Academic Probation
Students who fail to maintain satisfactory academic progress towards graduation are placed on Academic Probation. Probation is a temporary status intended to help focus students’ efforts while concentrating the program’s resources to address and remedy the causes of insufficient academic progress. Probation is not intended as a punitive measure but as a warning and a time for necessary improvement. Probation, however, could lead to further academic penalties and financial aid restrictions as deemed necessary by the program or federal guidelines.

Withdrawal
Students who do not achieve a 3.0 GPA will not be allowed to progress into the final course NURS 5913 Scholarly Project. On occasion students are faced with major health problems or changes in personal circumstances that make progression in the nursing program difficult. Students are encouraged to seek faculty counsel or advice early so that there is opportunity to plan how to best meet their educational goals. In the event that dismissal/withdrawal is recommended by faculty or requested by students, the Buntain School of Nursing Student Affairs Committee will seek to assure that appropriate policies have been followed and that concerns of both student and faculty have been adequately considered.

Clinical/Practice Experiences
The State of Washington requires a minimum of 100 practice experience hours. The MSN has multiple methods to achieve clinical practice experience hours. The easiest way is to take advantage of a clinical immersion experience. Clinical immersion experiences will offer the greatest bulk of available hours.
- Each course is built with a minimum of five clinical practice hours centered on a relevant curricular concept, and up to five hours are allocated for the Scholarly Project Thesis development.
- Some courses offer multiple clinical practice experience project opportunities where student may choose which experience is most beneficial for their learning and adaptable to their life schedule.
- The BSoN encourages all students to take advantage of multiple immersion experiences: Washington D.C., and or a global clinical site.

Scholarly Project
The MSN Scholarly Project will be completed and approved prior to graduation. There is a choice of two approaches:
1. Data collection to elucidate aspects of a phenomenon and generate knowledge
2. Pilot project to evaluate efficacy of a novel intervention or the transfer of an innovation from one context to another

Review, approval, and preparation for the Scholarly Project occurs throughout the MSN program courses:
• Selection of topic (NURS 5113 Curriculum Development)
• Documentation of research question, hypothesis, and method (NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care)
• Integration of scholarly project with clinical experience (NURS 5613 Implications of Holistic Care on Healthy Outcomes)

• Synthesis of documentation, data access/collection/analysis, conclusions, recommendations, and dissemination (NURS 5913 Scholarly Project)
• On-going feedback from course faculty with regard to course-specific components of the Scholarly Project

Defense of the Scholarly Project before the Scholarly Project Committee, comprised of the student’s advisor, another nursing faculty member, and an expert reader approved by the Buntain School of Nursing.

TOTAL: 30 SEMESTER CREDITS
A Word from the Dean:

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences at Northwest University educates individuals to serve within the mental health and human service professions both locally and internationally. The four graduate programs, the Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology (MACP), the Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (MACMHC), the Doctorate of Psychology in Counseling Psychology (Psy.D.), and the Master of Arts in International Community Development (MAICD), are built upon the integration of psychology, culture, and social justice.

Students enrolled in the Psy.D. Program will learn to integrate a strong theoretical knowledge base with practical, evidence-based skills to provide psychological and counseling services in a globally relevant and socially conscious manner. This program specifically prepares students to qualify for licensure as a Psychologist in Washington State.

Students involved in the MACP and the online MACMHS Programs prepare to serve individuals from different backgrounds with a variety of needs. These programs have a unique multicultural focus with an emphasis on social justice and prepare students to qualify for a master’s level state license.

Students participating in the ICD Program are equipped to identify, analyze, and understand cultural differences in contexts of need, and to develop holistic responses that are sensitive to the particular constraints and opportunities presented in those settings. This program prepares students for context-sensitive, strategic leadership in meeting the needs of the poor and oppressed, both in the U.S. and overseas.

All students have the opportunity to participate in a wide variety of cultural immersion experiences both locally and internationally. Past immersion experiences include Morocco, Brazil, India, China, and Turkey. These opportunities provide students with the chance to connect theory to praxis and heed Christ’s call to love, serve, and care for those who are hurting.

Whether serving locally or internationally, graduates of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences are prepared to respond to the call of Christ through excellent theory development and advanced applied skills to provide care in a rapidly globalizing world. We hope that you will consider joining us!

- Matt Nelson, Ph.D.
Dean, College of Social & Behavioral Sciences
College of Social and Behavioral Sciences General Policies

Application Deadlines
- Psy.D – Jan 15
- MACP – Jan 31, April 1
- MAICD – Oct 15, Dec 1, Mar 1, and May 1
- MACMHC – Feb 1, October 20

Academic Progress towards Graduation
Courses taken from the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences (CSBS), including electives, must earn a grade of B- or above. In addition, students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.000.

Furthermore, Psy.D. students must also pass qualifying exams, write, defend, and disseminate a dissertation, fulfill all practica requirements, and reach a professional standard as outlined in the Psy.D. Student Handbook.

Academic Probation
For the Probation policy specifically applying to the Doctor of Psychology program, please see that program’s policies.

Probation is not intended as a punitive measure, but as a warning that improvement is needed for continuation in the program. Program administrators and faculty will continue to provide guidance and support in helping the student to assume responsibility for his or her academic success. The Program Director or Advisor will provide support and monitoring of the student’s progress. Documentation regarding the student’s probationary status will be placed in his or her file. Probation may, however, lead to further academic penalties as deemed necessary by the director or chair of the academic program concerned.

A student may be placed on probation for one of the following reasons:
1. The student’s academic history prior to entry into the program reflects a GPA of below a 3.000 (“B” level), or submits an otherwise weak application, yet the application review board deemed him or her a worthy candidate for admission into the program. Such a student’s academic performance will be reviewed at the end of the first semester to determine whether he or she may continue in the program.
2. The student fails to maintain a grade B- of higher in all courses.
3. A student fails to meet the criteria of professional behavioral standards, including, but not limited to: academic honesty emotional stability, interpersonal skills, maturity, and ethical conduct.

If a student is placed on probation a second time, the student may be dismissed from the program.

A student will be taken off of probation when:
1. A grade of B- or higher is achieved in all coursework the following semester.
2. The student meets the criteria of professional behavioral standards, including, but not limited to: emotional stability, interpersonal skills, maturity, and ethical conduct according to the student’s yearly evaluation as assessed by faculty.

In addition, any College of Social and Behavioral Sciences student who obtains a grade of less than B- must retake the course and obtain a grade of B- or above within a time period determined by the program Director or Advisor. A student retaking a course will be responsible for additional tuition, course and independent study fees.

Attendance Policy
In addition to the attendance policy in the general section of this catalog, the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences maintains the following:
- Regular class attendance is important and expected of all students.
- Specific attendance policies and consequences of missing a class session are at the discretion of the individual professor of each class.
- If a student knows they will need to miss a class, the student should contact the professor in advance.
- A student cannot miss more than a third of the sessions of any given course.
- Attendance is included as part of the overall course grade and if a student misses more than a third of the sessions, the student will not be able to receive a passing grade. In this circumstance, the student is encouraged to withdraw from the course and retake the class when it is offered again.

Ethical Obligations Regarding Student Enrollment
The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences must meet its ethical obligation as a professional training institution by reserving the right to determine the suitability of each student for professional practice. Therefore, the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences may refuse admission to any applicant and may discontinue education to any student based on the Dean’s discretion.
Re-Entry Policy

The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences has specific policies and requirements for students who wish to reenter the program after previously withdrawing. Students who withdraw from a semester and return to the program the following semester do not need to reapply. Students who withdraw from a semester and are not enrolled for one or more succeeding semesters are required to complete the entire reapplication process. They will then be reviewed by the respective Review Board Committee and are not guaranteed re-admittance. In addition, it is up to the discretion of the Review Board Committee if the applicant will return to his or her cohort or be placed in a new cohort. Also, the applicant will need to meet with his or her respective Program Director to create a course completion plan, which may include the need to complete missed courses via independent study.
Master of Arts in Clinical Mental Health Counseling

The CMHC program is a 36-month, 9-semester, year-round online program with two required on-campus residency experiences (one in the first semester and one in the second summer of the program). The program enrolls students in fall and spring. It takes 3 years of full-time enrollment to complete the CMHC program across three annual terms (fall, spring, and summer semesters). Enrolling in the program part-time will extend the program to 48 or more months as every course is not offered every semester. Courses are offered in 8-week sections with the exception of the Practicum I, II, and III and Internship I, II, and III, which run 16 weeks in length. Students will enroll in two to three courses every 8-week period. The program is designed to prepare students for state licensure as professional counselors.

Transfer Credits

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences Master’s students may transfer up to 6 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree requirements. This must done prior to beginning the program and students interested in transferring graduate credits should contact the MACMHC Program Director.

Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology

The Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology is designed to prepare students to serve their communities as licensed Mental Health Counselors in the State of Washington as well as in other capacities. The professors draw from their academic studies and professional experiences to provide students with the background they will need to be successful in the field of counseling psychology. Students learn through lecture, discussion, and research, and then put their new knowledge to work in their internship or thesis, all guided by their professors. The program has a unique multicultural focus with an emphasis on social justice. Instructors seek to equip students to serve individuals from different backgrounds with widely different needs.

Program Outcomes

In addition to achieving the general goals of the university and of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, completing the MA in Counseling Psychology results in the following learning outcomes:

- Students will understand people biologically, psychologically, spiritually, and culturally;
- Students will think critically concerning issues relating to social justice;
- Students will be equipped as a therapist to work with diverse populations and develop a corresponding professional identity;
- Students will acquire, refine, and demonstrate appropriate master-level skills as a clinician or a researcher.

First Year Psychotherapy

MACP students are required to participate in 10 hours of individual psychotherapy within the first year of the program and to provide written verification of the completion of these hours from their psychotherapist (see MACP Student Handbook for specific requirements and appropriate forms).

Masters Level Counseling State Licensure

Students must complete an internship during the program to be eligible for Washington State licensure. Since licensure requirements differ slightly from state to state, the required course sequence may not fulfill all educational licensure requirements for every state. Given this, it is the student’s responsibility to determine the licensure requirements for the state through which he or she desires to become licensed and to determine whether or not the required course sequence meets those requirements. The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences may be able to offer electives to students in order to meet licensure requirements not met by the required course sequence; however, students must work in conjunction with the Director of Academic Programs and Dean and have their expressed permission in order to enroll in electives for the purpose of meeting licensure requirements.

Transfer Credits

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences Master’s students may transfer up to 6 credit hours of eligible graduate-level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree requirements. This must be done prior to beginning the program and students interested in transferring graduate credits should contact the Director of MA Student Services.

TOTAL: 62 SEMESTER CREDITS
Master of Arts in International Community Development

The International Community Development Master’s degree is designed to prepare men and women for context-sensitive, strategic leadership for advocacy and social change, both in the US and overseas. The degree highlights core issues of global-cultural awareness and social justice and places special emphasis on the needs of the poor, the marginalized, and the oppressed. Students will be equipped to identify, analyze, and understand cultural differences in contexts of need, and to develop holistic responses that are sensitive to the particular constraints and opportunities presented in those settings. Students will, in the course of study, explore career options in relief and development contexts, including leadership, sustainable funding, and social entrepreneurship, as well as project design and program evaluation.

Program Outcomes

In addition to achieving the general goals of the university and of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, completing the MA in International Community Development results in the following learning outcomes:

- Students will become scholars with sensitivity and expertise at observing and interpreting culture;
- Students will become innovators who can create culturally responsive programs that address social issues;
- Students will become critical thinkers able to evaluate existing approaches to meeting the needs of the poor and oppressed;
- Students will become leaders and managers who inspire with life-changing compassion and world-changing vision;
- Students will become collaborative practitioners who build authentic and supportive communities.

Program Delivery Models and Curriculum

Applicants to the MA in International Community Development choose between On Campus and Online Global Hybrid program delivery models.

The Online Global Hybrid MAICD begins with a week in Oxford, England, and ends with another trip to Europe to defend thesis projects. The On Campus MAICD meets one or two evenings per week and also includes a mid-program retreat. While most courses are taken in-step with the student’s cohort, students in both programs may choose to take one of the following to fulfill their specialization requirements: a) GLST 6573 Children, Poverty, and Development, b) GLST 6593 Disaster Relief and Development or c) GLST 6383 Peacemaking and Reconciliation. Each year, two of these classes are offered online; thus, the On Campus MAICD features one fully online course, as well as occasional hybrid courses to better allow for student fieldwork opportunities.

Both versions of the MAICD are identical in terms of their programmatic requirements, learning outcomes, and course sequence. Students take 40 credits over a period of 20-21 months. Students in the online program are enrolled in one two-credit practicum course each semester for 16 weeks, as well as two three-credit classes, which are typically consecutive and last for eight weeks each. Students in the on campus program are also enrolled in one two-credit practicum course over 16 weeks; three-credit classes, however, may be offered either concurrently or consecutively during each semester. Theoretical grounding, the development of practical skills, and experiential learning are critical values for the program. Leadership modules occur throughout the curriculum to facilitate the development of personal leadership as well as foster organizational leadership skills. Fieldwork is designed by each student with input from the program director or chair, and consists of 80 hours of service which will provide a relevant context for research. Students are expected to complete their fieldwork by the end of summer semester. Prior to graduation, students complete either a thesis project or traditional thesis, which they present at the end of the program.

Transfer Credits

College of Social and Behavioral Sciences Master’s students may transfer up to 6 credit hours of eligible graduate level coursework (subject to Program Director’s approval) from an accredited institution towards their degree requirements. This must done prior to beginning the program and students interested in transferring graduate credits should contact the MA Director of Student Services.

Certificate

Students who complete at least 32 hours of the 40 hour MAICD degree program with satisfactory grades yet choose not to continue, may request and be awarded a Graduate Certificate in International Community Development. The student will not graduate with their MA degree.

TOTAL: 40 SEMESTER CREDITS
Doctor of Psychology in Counseling Psychology

The Doctor of Psychology degree (Psy.D.) in Counseling Psychology at Northwest University prepares students to qualify for professional licensure as a Licensed Psychologist in Washington State with tangible knowledge and skills that can be used to serve the needs of others in a globally relevant and socially conscious manner. Using the practitioner-scholar model, we provide excellent training to equip psychologists with counseling, assessment, and intervention skills leading to qualification for licensure as a psychologist. Our program has a unique focus on cross-cultural psychology and service to the global community, with commitment to social justice, from a Christian worldview. Whether alleviating psychological suffering for those who reside here in our own city, or developing services for the afflicted around the world, we strive to equip our graduates to serve others with compassion and excellence. This applied program focuses on training skilled practitioners with a solid focus on scholarly research, discipline and inquiry. Students learn to integrate a strong theoretical knowledge base with practical, theory-informed, evidence-based skills to provide psychological and counseling services.

In addition to achieving the general goals of the university and of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, the Psy.D. Program has the following program goals:

- To produce graduates who have obtained the necessary skills and abilities needed for providing professional psychological and counseling services.
- To develop scholars with the ability to critically analyze scientific literature, and to conduct psychological research.
- To develop graduates with knowledge of the fundamental theories and scientific foundations of psychology.

Admission into the Doctor of Psychology in Counseling Psychology Program requires the completion of a Bachelor of Arts or Science (or an equivalent) degree from an accredited college or university to qualify for admission to the program. It is preferred that students have a major in psychology. However, if you do not, you must have completed: (a) General Psychology, (b) Theories of Personality or Theories of Psychotherapy, (c) Abnormal Psychology or Psychopathology, (d) Developmental or Lifespan Psychology, and (e) Statistics or Research Methods.

Among application materials listed online, students are required to submit scores for the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) General Test. The information from the GRE will be considered along with the other application materials during the admission process. A maximum of 20 graduate-level semester credits may be transferred from regionally accredited institutions if they are specifically evaluated as equivalent to those required in the program and approved by the Director of the Psy.D. Program. Under special circumstances additional graduate credit beyond this limit may be considered on a case-by-case basis.

State Licensure as a Psychologist

Since licensure requirements differ slightly from state to state, the required course sequence may not fulfill all educational licensure requirements for every state. Given this, it is the student’s responsibility to determine the licensure requirements for the state through which he or she desires to become licensed and to determine whether or not the required course sequence meets those requirements. The College of Social and Behavioral Sciences may be able to offer electives to students in order to meet licensure requirements not met by the required course sequence; however, students must work in conjunction with the Director of Psy.D. Program and have the Director’s express permission in order to enroll in electives for the purpose of meeting licensure requirements.

Program Curriculum

Overview

The Psy.D. degree is a five-year post-bachelor’s program designed to prepare the doctoral student to serve in diverse community settings as a counseling psychologist. The program focuses on theoretical and applied evidence-based scholarly literature and research. Emphasis is placed on international, multicultural, and social justice issues. Students build on their critical thinking skills and their understanding of diversity while acquiring, refining, and demonstrating doctorate-level skills as practitioners, researchers, and academics.

The program is organized as a year-round cohort system, with 119 credits required for graduation. Classroom instruction is the focus of the first three years, along with a requirement for cultural immersion and a practicum. Clinical training is the focus of the last two years. The fourth covers fewer courses, dissertation work and advanced practicum or a pre-internship. The fifth year is a yearlong internship.

To aid in the development of students’ professional identities, students are encouraged to gain exposure to professional psychology during the first two years of the program. This may be accomplished by shadowing and interviewing licensed psychologists, conducting research, and volunteering or working part-time within the field.

During the fifth year of the doctoral program, Psy.D. students have the option to register for a 6 credit internship course should the student wish to receive Federal Financial Aid support. If the student registers for the 6 credit internship course, the university will provide a scholarship equal to 4 credits of tuition so the students’ end tuition expense is the required 2 credits per semester. This allows students to qualify for financial aid by meeting the minimum credits required but does not cost the students more than their counterparts who register for the traditional 2 credit internship.

Credit Transfer Procedure for New Incoming Psy.D. Students

After receiving notification of acceptance into the Psy.D. program, incoming Psy.D. students may submit a written request to the Director of Psy.D. Student Services to transfer up to 20 credits from an accredited graduate school(s). Transfer credit is not allowed toward practicum or internship requirements. Credits may be transferred into the Psy.D. program at the sole discretion of the Director of the Psy.D. Program and the Director of Psy.D. Student Services. To be eligible for transfer, a course must match the Northwest University Psy.D. course in content and credit number. The process for transferring credits is as follows:

Step 1. The accepted student submits a written request to the Director of Psy.D. Student Services proposing that previous credit(s) earned from another institution be substituted for required course(s).

Step 2. The student must obtain an official transcript and a copy of course descriptions and syllabi obtained from the other school’s published catalog and submit all items to the Director of Psy.D. Student Services.

Step 3. The Director of Psy.D. Student Services will cross-check the proposal and submit a completed proposal form to the Director of the Psy.D. Program.

Step 4. The Director of Psy.D. Student Services and the Director of the Psy.D. Program will audit the proposal. A list of accepted credit substitutions will be marked on the proposal form and returned to the Director of Psy.D. Student Services.

Step 5. The Director of Psy.D. Student Services will inform the student of the accepted credit substitutions.

Step 6. The student will accept or deny the accepted proposal, at which time the student will inform the Director of Psy.D. Student Services whether he or she plans to make a deposit with NU.

Step 7. If the student agrees to the accepted substitution of credits, then the Director of Psy.D. Student Services submits a Degree Requirement Substitution / Waiver form to the Registrar’s office.

Professional Standards

The student’s academic progress, clinical competency, emotional stability, interpersonal skills, maturity, and ethical conduct will be evaluated annually by Psy.D. Program faculty. Faculty reserve the right to request a student to engage in psychotherapeutic counseling and may require counseling as a condition for remediation or re-admittance in the program. Students are expected to adhere to:

The student’s academic and/or failings will be considered by a committee of program administrators and faculty of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. Failure to adhere to the above standards may be cause for dismissal from the program at any time (see Dismissal from the Program).

Probation

Probation is not intended as a punitive measure, but as a warning that improvement is needed for continuation in the program. Program administrators and faculty will continue to provide guidance and support in helping the student to assume responsibility for his or her academic success. The Director of the Psy.D. Program will provide support and monitoring of the student’s progress. Documentation regarding the student’s probationary status will be placed in his or her file.

A student may be placed on probation for one of the following reasons:

1. The student’s academic history prior to entry into the Psy.D. Program reflects a GPA of below a 3.000 (“B” level), yet the application review board deemed him or her a worthy candidate for admission into the program.
2. A student fails to maintain a grade of B- or higher in all courses and/or a minimum 3.000 cumulative GPA. In addition, the student must retake the course with less than a B- within a time period determined by the Program Director.
3. A student fails to meet the criteria of professional behavioral standards, including, but not limited to: emotional stability, interpersonal skills, maturity, and ethical conduct.
4. If a student is placed on probation a second time, the student may be dismissed from the program.

A student will be taken off of probation when:

1. A grade of B- or higher in all courses the following semester and a minimum of a 3.000 cumulative GPA are achieved.
2. The student meets the criteria of professional behavioral standards, including, but not limited to: emotional stability, interpersonal skills, maturity, and ethical conduct according to the student’s yearly evaluation as assessed by faculty.

Dismissal from the Program

A student may be dismissed from the Psy.D. Program due to any one of the following factors:

- Continual Poor Performance in the classroom or in applied settings. Should the student be unable to achieve a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 and/or earn a grade of B- of higher in all courses the semester following being placed on academic probation, the student may be dismissed from the program. In addition, if a student is placed on probation more than twice throughout the course of the program, he or she may be dismissed from the program. Furthermore, if a student fails to retake the course within a time period determined by the Program Director, he or she may be dismissed from the program.

- Professional Conduct. Students are expected to comply with the behavioral standards of Northwest University, the ethical code of the American Psychological Association and laws established by Washington State or local government bodies. Should a student fail to meet the criteria of professional behavioral standards, including, but not limited to: emotional stability, interpersonal skills, maturity, and ethical conduct, the student may be dismissed from the program.

Students dismissed from the Psy.D. Program by the program leadership may appeal the decision to the Dean of the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and further appeal could be made to the Provost of the university. The reviewing personnel will be provided with all relevant information regarding the student’s academic performance and professional conduct.

MA in Counseling Psychology en Route to Psy.D.

Students have the option of applying for a Master of Arts in Counseling Psychology (MACP) degree en route to the Psy.D. degree after completing the third year of the Psy.D. Program. Students must submit a completed application to the Assistant Director of Academic Programs who will present the application to a committee of Psy.D. faculty and staff for review. In order to qualify, the student must have (1) successfully completed all 92 credits of coursework for the first three years of the program, (2) passed the qualifying exam, (3) completed all required practicum hours, and (4) completed the elective course PSYC 5701 Abusive Relationships.

Process of Submitting/Disseminating Doctoral Dissertation

As a requirement of the Psy.D. Program, each student will complete and disseminate a doctoral dissertation. The dissertation is intended to provide the student with the opportunity to produce a significant piece of scholarly work that represents the culmination of both the student’s acquisition of knowledge in the field of psychology as well as his or her professional development and area of specialization. In addition, the student is required to have their dissertation bound and published through an online database as specified by the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences. Lastly, the student must successfully defend and disseminate his or her dissertation prior to participating in commencement.

Psy.D. Candidacy Status

A Psy.D. student achieves candidacy after completing all academic course work (with the exception of internship courses), passing the qualifying exams, and successfully defending his or her dissertation proposal. The term Psy.D. candidate is strictly an academic status and must not be used in association with clinical work.
Program Timeframe

Students are required to complete the Psy.D. Program requirements of 119 semester credit hours of the prescribed coursework, an original dissertation, an organized, sequential and coordinated practicum, pre-internship, and internship within seven years of beginning the program. Extra fees related to additional dissertation credits, practicum, pre-internship and/or internship credits and program continuation fees may be applied within the fourth thru seventh year.

- Students are expected to be continuously registered during continuation; however, should a student not register for a semester (or more), when the student chooses to register once again, he or she will be assessed the full tuition he or she should have paid during the previous semesters that he or she was not registered. For example, if a student does not register for Fall or Spring continuation, but does register in Summer semester, the student would be charged tuition for all three semesters, Fall, Spring and Summer during the Summer term.

- Students would need to complete the university re-admittance form to re-enroll after a leave of absence (form processed by CSBS).

- Students are responsible for managing and paying back loans if loans come due while students are not registered.

- If students request to register half-way through a semester, students will not be given permission to register until the following semester thus eliminating the need for the Registrar’s Office to manually enroll these students.

Primary Requirements for the Psy.D. Degree:

1. 119 semester hours of coursework

2. Psy.D. students are required to participate in 10 hours of individual psychotherapy with a licensed psychologist within the first year of the doctoral program and to provide written verification of the completion of these hours from their psychotherapist (see current Psy.D. Student Handbook for specific requirements).

3. Doctoral Student Progress Assessment – Year One, Two, and Three

4. Cultural Immersion Experience – course requirement of PSYC 7662 International Field Study – Spring semester, Year Two

5. Qualifying Examination – Year Three

6. Doctoral Dissertation: There are options for a focused dissertation that is comprised primarily of one of the following:
   - Quantitative research;
   - Qualitative research;

   The process will include a dissertation proposal, proposal defense, and dissertation defense to the respective dissertation committee. It is also required that the student formulates and delivers a presentation of the dissertation (e.g., publication, speaking engagement, formal report to a clinic or other agency).

7. An approved Doctoral Practicum that meets Washington State and program requirements.

8. An approved Pre-Internship or an Advanced Practicum that meets Washington State and program requirements.

9. An approved Internship that meets Washington State and program requirements.

10. In order to graduate and participate in the Northwest University Spring Commencement Ceremony, the student must complete all requirements as noted in the Psy.D. Student Handbook. The student will receive the diploma at the next regularly scheduled graduation period. (May, August, and December)

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS AND SPECIAL COURSES

Independent Study Courses — Identified with an “IS” and a code of x80x – x83x (if not a catalogued course). An IS course is specifically formatted to be delivered by a professor according to the individual student’s needs and learning style outside of a regular classroom setting. The IS course topic, requirements, and expectations are communicated through a course syllabus/contract between the student and instructor that specifies the nature and extent of interaction between the student and instructor and the expectations for satisfactory course completion. This syllabus along with the Request for Independent Study form must be submitted to the dean responsible for the department in which the course is offered. Based on the nature of the course and the student, the instructor of an IS course may require a number of face-to-face meetings. (A special Independent Study Fee is charged for Independent Study courses.)

Special Topic Courses — Identified with a “TOP” (unless the title includes the type of course) and a code of x84x – x88x. TOP courses are periodically included in the semester schedule to enrich the curriculum and are not listed specifically in the catalog. A professor instructs a semester-length structured class regarding a specific topic. These may be repeated for credit on different subjects.

Travel Courses — Identified with a “TVL” (unless the title includes the type of course) and a code of x89x – x91x. Travel courses are faculty-led experiences that combine classroom-based preparatory teaching with on-site instruction in selected locals. Travel courses are periodically included in the semester schedule and are not listed specifically in the catalog. Special fees to cover course expenses may be charged.

Internship and Practicum Courses — Identified with an “INT” (unless the title includes the type of course) and a code of x9xx – x9xx. These allow the student a length of time at a specific location(s) where he/she makes application of the broad-range of theoretical learning while under the direct supervision of a professional in the discipline. (A special Internship or Practicum Fee may be required.)

Field Experience Courses — Identified with a “FLD” (unless the title includes the type of course) and a code of x97x. Students do short-term, on-site observations and evaluations in a discipline. Field experience courses may be repeated for credit. (A special Field Experience Fee may be required.)

Certified Prior Learning Courses — Credits awarded for learning obtained via sources that have been previously identified are identified with a “CPL” on the transcript.

Portfolio Courses — Credits awarded for learning verified through faculty assessment of students’ portfolios are identified with a “PRT” on the transcript. (A special Portfolio Assessment Fee is required.)

Graduate Student Instructor — A graduate student contracted to teach one or more courses and who is responsible for reporting grades in his/her own name. An individual engaged in this capacity must be enrolled in an academic program of the university.

Graduate Assistant — A graduate student of the university contracted on a part-time, temporary basis for the performance of academic services including research or general assistance with academic programs. An individual engaged in this capacity must be enrolled in an academic program of the university.

Graduate Teaching Assistant — A graduate student contracted on a part-time, temporary basis to carry out instructional activities or lab supervision. The primary responsibility of this position is to assist faculty members in performing instructional tasks. An individual engaged in this capacity must be enrolled in an academic program of the university.

HIST 5423 SECONDARY SOCIAL STUDIES METHODS
LANG 5423 ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE METHODS
MATH 5423 SECONDARY MATHEMATICS METHODS
SCIE 5423 BIOLOGY METHODS AND LAB MANAGEMENT

EDMA 5453 ASSESSMENT AND EXCEPTIONALITY – Engages research around exceptionality (special education, advanced students), specifically as it touches on areas of assessment. Candidates will reflect on assessment tools and strategies across the learning spectrum, considering the merits and challenges of assessing special needs students through standardized testing, as well as assessing advanced students in critical thinking and subject synthesis. This course is focused on effective assessment processes for a diverse P-12 student population.

EDMA 5486 FULL-TIME STUDENT TEACHING – Monday-Friday field experience, where the student plans and teaches the classroom curriculum for at least three consecutive weeks. Manages classroom routines. Assessment of the student’s ability to implement what has been learned in the professional education sequence. Demonstration of subject knowledge, positive impact on student learning, and instructional skills. Pass the Washington State Pedagogy Assessment. Taken concurrently with EDMA 5561 Professional Seminar. Prerequisite: Completion of methods courses and EDMA 5202 Part-time Student Teaching. (Non-education graduates: 6 credits)

EDMA 5503 ADVANCED INSTRUCTIONAL PRACTICE – Beyond the basics (learning targets, lesson planning, etc.), this course allows for an in depth look at honing instructional practices as well as increasing formal and informal leadership capacity as an educator in areas of instruction. This course is aimed at applying assessment techniques to inform instruction, allowing for sustainable changes to teaching practices and increased student engagement in the P-12 classroom.

EDMA 5523 EDUCATIONAL STANDARDS AND ACCOUNTABILITY – Analyzes history and purposes of educational standards from multiple perspectives, e.g., philosophical, political, social, equal opportunity, and pedagogical. Compares American standards and results with the expectations of other developed countries. Addresses influence of the federal government through legislation, regulation, and enforcement activities. Covers school improvement initiated by Washington State since 1993, including program and student performance assessments: norm and criterion-referenced tests. Studies development and impacts of state standardized testing.

EDMA 5543 CURRENT EDUCATIONAL ISSUES AND TRENDS (Assessment/Leadership) – Evaluate contemporary movements, theories, products, and practices which affect common schools (P-12). Topics vary by term depending on current events; may include federal and state legislation, court cases, regulations, religion in public schools, published studies and journal articles, social and political dynamics, school finance, special needs populations, diversity, affirmative action, equal educational opportunity, technology, teacher preparation and licensure, professional development, teacher effectiveness, professional ethics, and career and retirement planning. Candidate focus will follow their program Concentrations (Assessment/Leadership).
EDMA 5561 PROFESSIONAL SEMINAR – Seminar sessions include discussions on educational philosophy, values and ethics, Christian worldview, effective teaching practices, conflict management, problem-solving strategies, and assessment of student learning. Activities and assignments focus on job search skills and professional development: resume writing, production of a teacher placement file, simulated job interviews, Washington State teacher certification and continuing education requirements, and drafting a professional growth plan related to the Professional Teacher Certificate. Taken concurrently with EDMA 5486 Full-time Student Teaching or EDMA 5786 Full-time Student Teaching. (Requirement satisfied by EDUC 4971, if completed in post-B.A. status)

EDMA 5613 THE INTEGRATED TEACHER – Considers the aims, structure and styles of educational endeavors. With the individual teacher in mind, using philosophical and practical texts, this course directs candidates to think deeply about their own aims of education, who they are in the classroom and what structures align with those realities. The goal of this course is to foster authentic teachers who engage their students in meaningful and effective ways.

EDMA 5623 HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION, BULLYING (HIB) AND MORAL EDUCATION – Provides a broad overview of the phenomenon of bullying as it plays out in P-12 schooling. The course will outline current research on school bullying, including definitions, Washington state law regarding harassment, intimidation and bullying within schools, bully/victim characteristics, gender in bullying, and bullying motivations. Further, the course will consider several current anti-bullying programs, outlining both their programs and aims. Finally, the course will more broadly consider the notion of “moral transformation,” considering both behavioral and dispositional change, specifically discussing the roles of student identity construction and school culture as they intersect with bullying activities and moral development.

EDMA 4663 PROFESSIONAL/EDTPA SUPPORT SEMINAR – Course Description Pending

EDMA 5661 EDTPA SEMINAR I – Introduces the state-required Teacher Performance Assessment (edTPA), mainly focused on edTPA rubrics, structure, and timeline. In addition, an overview of building the edTPA through our COE online portfolio is provided.

EDMA 5671 EDTPA SEMINAR II – Provides an overview of edTPA construction. This will include training on commentaries, artifacts, and upload. Writing days are also provided, allowing candidates pull-out time from Student Teaching to write their assessment.

EDMA 5682 EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH METHODS: DATA – A continuation for EDMA 5063, this course focuses candidates on their data collection efforts, aimed toward a final educational research project. Candidates will collect data for their projects by means consistent with their previously developed research proposals. Prerequisite: EDMA 5063 Education Research Methods: Theory.

EDMA 5691 EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH METHODS: REPORTING – A continuation for EDMA 5063 and EDMA 5682, this course focuses candidates on analyzing their data (collected in EDMA 5682), writing a final educational research report, and presenting it to a panel of peers and community members. Candidates will write a full research report based on the data collected and proposal developed earlier. Prerequisite: EDMA 5063 Education Research Methods: Theory; EDMA 5682 Educational Research Methods: Data.

EDMA 5701 PROCERT PRE-ASSESSMENT AND ORIENTATION SEMINAR – In line with Washington State's Professional Certification requirement for newer teachers, the ProCert Pre-Assessment and Orientation Seminar is a 'support program' aimed at aiding ProCert candidates in their preparation for the ETS ProTeach Electronic Portfolio submission. The Pre-Assessment seminar is focused on unpacking the 12 state ProCert Criteria as well as the three Entries required for the ProTeach Portfolio. In addition, candidates will become familiar with the online Portfolio textboxes, evidence requirements, submission process, and benchmark examples, working with a cohort to gain clarity throughout. (Grade Pass/No Credit)

EDMA 5713 DATA ANALYSIS – Introduces data analysis methodologies on theoretical and practical levels. This will include basic statistical analysis, as well as qualitative methodologies. Practically this course is aimed at helping candidates in their efforts to effectively collect and analyze classroom data (i.e., student performance, assessment and behavioral data), ultimately aimed at more effective practice and increased student learning. Prerequisites: EDMA 5063 Educational Research Methods: Theory; EDMA 5682 Educational Research Methods: Data; EDMA 5691 Educational Research Methods: Reporting.

EDMA 5753 PROGRAM, PROCESS AND POLICY EVALUATION – Evaluating programs, processes, and policies within educational settings.

EDMA 5781 PROTEACH PREPARATION SEMINAR – Helps the candidate through the ProTeach submission process. Working with an NU mentor, the candidate will begin the preparation processes involved in the electronic Portfolio submission, including collecting evidence, writing narrative portions, and using ProTeach forms (e.g., Needs Assessment, Professional Growth Activities Log, etc.). While Northwest University cannot guarantee passage of the ProTeach Assessment (since all Portfolios are scored independently by ETS), we do provide support throughout the process; setting the candidate up with clear understanding and collaborative experiences. (Grade Pass/No Credit)
EDMA 5813 COLLABORATION, COACHING, AND PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION – Provides a theoretical and practical overview of co-teaching practices in the classroom. The course will provide working definitions of co-teaching, an overview of co-teaching strategies (e.g., one teach, one observe; one teach, one assist; station teaching; parallel teaching; team teaching; etc.), as well as discussing the benefits and difficulties of the co-teaching model. In addition, the course will review the current research on collaborative teaching best practices, including impact on student performance.

EDMA 5833 LEARNING STRATEGIES AND APPLIED TECHNOLOGY – This course builds on the teaching expertise of practitioners and extends their knowledge of researched strategies and technologies shown to enhance the learning of elementary and secondary students and to support the narrowing of achievement gaps for minority populations. Tailored to meet the needs and addresses the interests of graduate cohort members, course content remains flexible in terms of selected readings and activities focused on learning theory, effective strategies, and available electronic technologies.

EDMA 5873 LEADERSHIP AND ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE – Provides a broad overview of the teacher-leader in today’s P-12 school setting. The course will provide a theoretical understanding of the teacher-leader, including leadership theory, as well as topics such as mentoring and school reform. In addition, the course will focus on practical aspects of teacher leadership spread across a variety of roles within the school (induction support, collaborative professional development, curriculum coach, community partnership, etc.). This course is aimed at equipping classroom teachers toward strong professional contribution within their schools.

EDMA 5913 STUDENT TEACHING I – Course Description pending

EDMA 5923 STUDENT TEACHING II – Course Description pending

EDMA 5946 M.ED. INTERNSHIP – This course is specifically designed for international candidates, giving them valuable observation experience in a local U.S. classroom. The course requires a minimum of 250 hours in a K-12 classroom, serving the classroom teacher, gaining understanding of the classroom/instructional practice. Prerequisite: entry in the M.Ed program. (Grade Pass/No Credit)

EDMA 5972 FIELD PROJECT – Focuses the candidate on an intentional project within a school, district or learning community, developed by the candidate in consultation with the professor. The project is aligned by purpose and Concentration (Assessment/Teacher Leadership/ELL), and aimed to facilitate practical application of theory in a field-based experience.

LANG 5013 SURVEY OF LINGUISTICS – Surveys the study of linguistics followed by in depth treatment of phonology, phonetics, morphology, and syntax. Students will interpret linguistic data in each area.

LANG 5033 SLA THEORY – Introduces core theories of how second and foreign languages are learned after a first language has already been acquired. Students will focus on cognitive theories and the historical framework of the field.

LANG 5133 SOCIOLUMINIGUISTICS – Investigates the relationship between language and culture. Students will examine how societal factors impact linguistic choices.

LANG 5233 SLA RESEARCH METHODS – Introduces action research methodology as applied in English language education. Students will review basic statistical analysis. Introduces American Psychological Association (APA) format for professional writing.

LANG 5323 METHODS OF TESOL – Examines approaches and methods for teaching English language. Students will focus on producing unit plans for specific demographics, and on developing appropriate activities for various skill areas.

LANG 5373 LITERACY – Examines the developmental stages in the process of reading and writing, as well as teaching literacy pedagogy.

LANG 5443 SYNTAX AND GRAMMAR PEDAGOGY – Explores the theoretical treatment of syntax to understand modern theories of grammar, followed by pedagogical applications of the theory for teaching grammar in an ESL/EFL context.

LANG 5603 ASSESSMENT – Practices constructing and administering tests in ESOL classes. Evaluation tools for assessing second language proficiency are studied.

LANG 6263 LANGUAGE, CULTURE, AND POWER – Examines critical connections between language and culture through the exploration of communities of practice, identity, heteroglossia, and power.

LANG 6943 INTERNSHIP – This course melds theory with practice through onsite teaching, teaching observation, and applied research at a site selected in consultation with a program advisor. The research done in the internship directly supports the development of the thesis, an action research article suitable for conference presentation.

LANG 6963 RESEARCH THESIS – Develops a research article for publication based on international internship teaching and researching.

LANG 6973 RESEARCH THESIS CONTINUATION – Continuation of research article for publication based on international internship teaching and researching.

2017-2018 Northwest University Graduate Academic Catalog – 95
BIBL 5003 BIBLICAL LANDS TRIP – A course to prepare students for an on-site tour of selected Bible lands at the conclusion of the semester. The seminar is a survey of the Bible lands with special emphasis on their biblical, historical, geographical, archaeological, and cultural associations. Special travel fee is required.

BIBL 5103 OLD TESTAMENT INTRODUCTION: BACKGROUND & THEOLOGY – This serves as an introductory graduate survey that examines the basic structure and biblical content of the Old Testament as well as the core history of Israel in tandem with their relationships to other contemporaneous Near Eastern peoples. This course will also assist students in developing a foundational understanding of hermeneutical and exegetical method and essential theological themes as they interface with the Old Testament canonical literature.

BIBL 5203 NEW TESTAMENT INTRODUCTION: BACKGROUND & THEOLOGY – This course serves as an introductory graduate survey of the New Testament beginning with an overview of the major literary components of the Gospels, Acts, the Pauline corpus, the General epistles, and Revelation. The entire scope of the New Testament writings will be reviewed in terms of authorship, date, occasion for writing, as well as for structure and theological content. Attention will also be given to the textual traditions, language and canonicity of the NT.

BIBL 5253 CORINTHIAN CORRESPONDENCE – A course focusing on Paul’s epistles to the Corinthians in the context of his larger relationship with the church at Corinth. Study of both the historical-critical setting as well as careful, passage by passage exposition of the text will be pursued in an effort to grasp the theological import of this watershed text. The course will also include a review of the history of the epistles’ interpretation, a discussion of the larger issues in the current academic discussion on Paul’s works and thought, and the potential impact of these epistles’ timeless thoughts on contemporary culture.

BIBL 5303 ENTERING THE BIBLICAL NARRATIVE – This course seeks to ground biblical and theological reflection in the overarching story of the Christian Scriptures. Thus it assumes that the biblical text will be read responsively within its worldview. In this way, the text is not only interpreted by, but also transforms the reader. Students are equipped to embody the effective nature of these living texts within their own cultural contexts.

BIBL 5333 A BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OF DREAMS AND VISIONS – Dreams, along with prophecy and visions have been understood to be a significant expression of the out-pouring of God’s Spirit in the Old Testament. In the New Testament, Luke also champions dreams and visions. This course investigates the broad topics of sleep, dreams, visions, and divine revelation in both the Old and New Testaments. It is a study that attempts to pull together the disparate reflections on the biblical understanding of dreams from a Pentecostal-Charismatic perspective.

BIBL 5423 BIBLICAL INTERPRETATION AND MODERNITY – This course is an introduction to and interaction with the more recent history of biblical scholarship. This course surveys the trends, developments and critical methodologies within the field of biblical studies. The effects of modern thought on the spiritual life and surrounding culture of western Christian communities are explored. Students learn to evaluate the assumptions / values of competing intellectual ideologies as they influence our understanding of biblical texts.

BIBL 5553 READING THE BIBLE: EXEGESIS AND INTERPRETATION – This course serves as an introductory graduate experience in biblical exegesis and Christ-centered hermeneutics as applied to the entire scope of the biblical narrative. Special attention is given to the development of an intellectual framework for biblical interpretation, coupled with skillful exegesis that lays a solid foundation for both oral and written exposition of canonical sources. Students will also gain an understanding of the principles and methods which apply to the entire Scripture as well as specific methodologies that are necessary to interpret various genres of biblical material such as narrative text, epistles, poetry, and prophetic writings.

BIBL 6413 DEUTERONOMY – A course focusing on the book of Deuteronomy as a central theological text of the Old Testament and indeed, the whole canon of Scripture. This course studies the nature of biblical covenants and the structure of Deuteronomy as it conducts careful exposition of key passages and themes. It attends to the history of interpretation and current state of academic study of Deuteronomy as well as the continuing relevance of the message of Deuteronomy.

CHIS 6163 – THE JOURNEY OF THE EARLY CHURCH – Emphasizes the development of Christianity in the centuries from the post-Apostolic era into the fourth century with a significant emphasis upon its existence vis-a-vis pagan society and the Constantinian Empire. Topics will include: the place of martyrs as witnesses to the passion of Christ, the efforts and goals of apologists, the faith and practice of the early Church as seen by both insiders and outsiders, the development of Christian theology, and the fervor surrounding Constantine and the Council of Nicaea. Consideration will be made of both the early Church in its context and related lessons for contemporary Christianity. (Same as HIST 6163)

CMIN 5103 UNDERSTANDING MISSION AND CULTURE – This course examines mission, especially as it relates to the local church. This interdisciplinary study is designed to move the student toward a visionary and inclusive understanding of mission in relation to the transformation of individuals, communities, cultures and the planting of churches. Students will reflect on a biblically based theology that takes seriously the church’s missional vocation.

CMIN 5163 TEAM BUILDING AND MANAGING CONFLICT – This course will explore team building as integral to preventing conflict and the role of conflict in healthy team formation. Participants will examine the nature of conflict, how it develops within individuals, relationships, and organization as well as the methods for effectively managing conflict.

CMIN 5213 ETHICAL AND LEGAL CONCERNS IN MINISTRY – This course will examine the development of a constructive Christian ethic as a basis from which to address the moral problems and legal issues confronting the church in today’s culture. Students will explore the relationship between theological reflection and ethical thinking in light of the church's moral mission in society.

CMIN 5363 THE MEANING OF CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY – This course explores the implications of 'mission': What does the church exist for? Emphasis is placed both on a biblical understanding of the people of God and historic expressions of that community through the centuries. These observations will then serve as a framework for critically evaluating current issues facing church life and organization. Students will be encouraged to consider how they might be express biblically centered expressions of Christian community in diverse ethnic, social and global contexts.

CMIN 6143 LEADERSHIP AND PLURALISTIC ISSUES – This course is based on the assumption that cross-cultural competency is essential on a personal level for meaningful human relationships and on a professional level for success as a leader. Church leaders and other ministry practitioners alike need to understand how to cope with the differing ideologies of modern society. This course examines biblically grounded principles and models that will enable the student to understand the extent and realities of cultural diversity, and thus to render more effective leadership in communicating the Christian message in a pluralistic society. This interdisciplinary study deals with the leadership implications and strategies of the religious, ideological and cultural diversity that surrounds the church in its local and global context. Special focus is given to the nation’s growing ethnic communities in order to form an understanding of the purposeful inclusive nature and role of the church today. This understanding is critical for the church to accomplish its missional goal of leading the transformation of individuals, communities and cultures as an “alternative & counter-culture” community of faith.

CMIN 6173 STRATEGIC PLANNING AND ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGE – This course will examine the strategic planning process for redefining the shape of a missional organization in a pluralistic society. It will focus on ministry analysis, values discovery, mission, vision, and strategy development, ministry contingencies and evaluation. Students will explore the leader’s role in organizational change - creating and preventing change as well as determining the organization’s readiness for change. In addition, students explore the reasons for resistance to change and strategies for coping with resistance.

CMIN 6183 MOTIVATION, COACHING, AND MENTORING – This course explores the practice of mentoring in the context of missional ministry. Students will be exposed to mentoring in a variety of contexts, and will examine and experience community as a missional people as well as the intricacies of motivating, coaching, and disciplining people.

CMIN 6203 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY – This course is designed to develop advanced skills for theological, biblical, literary and cultural research and writing. Advanced research methods will be examined s the student develops the necessary tools to produce a quality final degree document. Students planning to pursue another advanced degree are strongly encouraged to complete this course. Students who will be taking either THEO 6943 (Thesis) or CMIN 6943 (Culminating Leadership Project) are required to complete this course. A proposal must be completed to pass this course and will serve as the student’s starting submission for entry in to CMIN 6943 or THEO 6943. (Same as THEO 6203)

CMIN 6453 THE SPIRITUALITY OF CHRISTIAN WORSHIP – Participants in this course define and exegete 'worship' as a biblical theme and are introduced to the 'psychology' of worship and group dynamics. Furthermore, the class explores the spectrum of secular manifestations of 'worship' as a means to both understanding popular culture and framing Christian worship as distinct from these expressions.
CMIN 6543 THEOLOGY AND CONTEMPORARY MEDIA: INTERPRETING THE HOLLYWOOD NARRATIVE – This course explores the connections between theology and artistic expression (imagination). Film brings together visual, literary and musical arts to functions as a sort of "uber-art." The point of entry into popular culture might be through the role of film in shaping the narratives of western culture.

CMIN 6943 CULMINATING LEADERSHIP PROJECT – This course brings together all of the student’s program course work by researching and writing on one of the following possibilities: a new ministry that can be developed and the leadership that will be required; restructuring an organization or ministry to be more effective and capture the leadership realities that will need to be faced to bring about this about; exploring and analyzing various leadership models used in different venues and how they are working in specific contexts; exploring the state of a particular leadership model within a denomination or organization and how that style has impacted the denomination or organization; examining biblical models of leadership and how they are being carried out or being neglected in various Christian groups; developing a model for leadership that could better serve new churches or organizations; in consultation with the Graduate Program Director, an approach can be tailored to best service the student’s context and future planning. Students will be assigned to a faculty supervisor according to the selected subject matter. Prerequisite: CMIN 6203 Research Methodology, completed proposal. (Grade Pass/No Credit)

CMIN 6990 THESIS CONTINUATION – Students who need additional time to finish their thesis after completing the appropriate CMIN 6943 Thesis course, must register for this course each term through completion. No student can enroll in this course for more than three years (six terms) without the approval of the Dean of the College of Ministry. A Continuation Fee applies to this course.

HIST 6163 – THE JOURNEY OF THE EARLY CHURCH – Emphasizes the development of Christianity in the centuries from the post-Apostolic era into the fourth century with a significant emphasis upon its existence vis-a-vis pagan society and the Constantinian Empire. Topics will include: the place of martyrs as witnesses to the passion of Christ, the efforts and goals of apologists, the faith and practice of the early Church as seen by both insiders and outsiders, the development of Christian theology, and the fervor surrounding Constantine and the Council of Nicaea. Consideration will be made of both the early Church in its context and related lessons for contemporary Christianity. (Same as CHIS 6163)

LANG 6413 HEBREW I – A beginning study of biblical Hebrew that enables participants to read simple narrative passages and some poetry. Through a variety of learning activities participants learn to speak Hebrew as they progress together from simple vocabulary through fundamental grammatical forms and sentence structure to the point of reading several chapters of the Bible. Appeals to visual, aural, and kinesthetic learners who desire to read and translate Hebrew as well as to use their skills to better interpret the Bible and make use of commentaries and other tools of biblical study.

LANG 6423 HEBREW II – Building on LANG 6413, Hebrew 2 develops further proficiency with the forms and uses of the Hebrew verbal system. Through continued use of spoken Hebrew, participants read many chapters of Hebrew narrative and a few psalms as they gain experience not only in translating Hebrew but also in understanding Hebrew style and idiomatic expressions. The pedagogical approach focuses on the functions of language in context, gradually building vocabulary and familiarity with the verbal system through repeated yet creative exposure to large passages of biblical text.

LANG 6513 GREEK I – An introduction to the basic grammar, syntax and vocabulary of New Testament Greek combining both deductive and inductive approaches and emphasizing reading in the Greek New Testament.

LANG 6523 GREEK II – A continuation of Greek I that introduces basic grammar, syntax and vocabulary of New Testament Greek combining both deductive and inductive approaches and emphasizing reading in the Greek New Testament. Note: Greek I and Greek II must be taken sequentially.

PCAR 6944 CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION INTERNSHIP I – Course description pending

PCAR 6954 CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION INTERNSHIP II – Course description pending

PCAR 6964 CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION INTERNSHIP III – Course description pending

PCAR 6974 CLINICAL PASTORAL EDUCATION INTERNSHIP IV – Course description pending

PMIN 5133 LEADERSHIP AND CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT – This course explores the holistic life of the leader with an emphasis on divine design, character, spirituality and personal ethics. Opportunity is given for spiritual, physical, emotional, mental and relational development within one’s life, and how it can influence interpersonal relationships and the public roles of leadership in the missional workplace.

PMIN 5233 CREATIVE PREACHING – This course will provide an exploration of innovative ways to proclaim God's Word, such as dramatic narrative, audience participation, interview format and video integration. Students will be equipped to creatively communicate the Bible with cultural relevance and scriptural fidelity.
PMIN 5253 SPIRITUAL FORMATION AND DEVELOPMENT – This course is designed to enhance the student’s experience of lifelong spiritual transformation. In addition to the classic spiritual disciplines and virtues, an array of contributions from various streams of the Christian tradition are considered, including the ways in which life experience can be spiritually forming if properly engaged. The model used in this course is designed to encourage leaders to facilitate the spiritual growth of those they lead by example, to become leaders worth following.

PMIN 5413 MINISTRY ESSENTIALS – Participants will develop a practical, biblically based foundation for ministry that integrates theology and praxis including Missio Dei, the conducting of sacerdotal functions (communion, weddings, funerals, baby dedications) as well as establishing ethical parameters in pastoral counseling, time management, ministerial ethics, and leadership style. Special emphasis will be given to the divine call of vocational ministry, the attendant challenges of balancing one’s spiritual, personal, and professional life as well as interfacing with those in ecclesiastical oversight roles.

PMIN 6193 PASTORAL CARE AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT – This course helps students to understand the nature and practice of pastoral care. A survey of development stages and tasks common to all persons throughout the life cycle is examined. One particular emphasis of the course is placed on the special needs for ministry to marriages and family life. The course aims to enable students to create real and vital communities that care.

PMIN 6243 MINISTRY LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION – The course serves to prepare students to lead a church or other ministry organization by teaching principles of leadership, financial management, governance, board leading, staff and volunteer recruiting and management, recording keeping, vision development, relevant legal issues, and strategic planning.

PMIN 6323 BIBLICAL PREACHING & TEACHING – The class provides a graduate level foundation to effectively communicating God’s Word to engage and empower listeners to live transformed lives. The course introduces the student to various forms of preaching and teaching (including communicating in cross-cultural contexts) and prepares students to effectively prepare and deliver sermons as well as didactic presentations. Students will also gain a fundamental understanding of how to incorporate technology into their communication.

THEO 5213 CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY: AN INTRODUCTION – A foundational overview of basic systematic theology as articulated in the evangelical expression of the Church with which the Assemblies of God in broad perspective identifies itself. This course will also give specific attention to the theological formation of classical Pentecostal doctrine as articulated by the Statement of Fundamental Truths of the Assemblies of God.

THEO 5223 SYSTEMATIC THEOLOGY – Course Description Pending

THEO 5313 PHILOSOPHY FOR UNDERSTANDING THEOLOGY – This course maps the influence of the western philosophical tradition on Christian theology through the centuries. Important questions will be explored: ‘What is philosophy?’; ‘How does it influence thinking about God - both consciously and sub-consciously?’ Through a series of case studies, students will be introduced to basic principles for sound theological reflection and assisted in communicating those thoughts in a contemporary context.

THEO 5423 CHRISTIANITY IN CONVERSATION WITH CONTEMPORARY WORLDVIEWS – This course surveys post-modern thought and examines its influence on contemporary worldviews. The goal is to foster healthy critiques of the diverse expressions of this present-day conversation. The task of bringing theology to bear on the assumptions of contemporary worldviews will enable the student to develop a constructive Christian response to current trends.

THEO 5533 A THEOLOGY OF VOCATION – Participants examine biblical teaching and theological reflection on the concept of vocation. Developments in the understanding of the nature and purpose of work and perspectives on the role of human participation in the divine activity of creation and redemption are reviewed and assessed. Students construct a suitable theological framework from which to evaluate their own calling and explore ways in which faith communities can better assist members to discover and cultivate working lives that are worthwhile and meaningful.

THEO 6203 RESEARCH METHODOLOGY – This course is designed to develop advanced skills for theological, biblical, literary and cultural research and writing. Advanced research methods will be examined so the student develops the necessary tools to produce a quality final degree document. Students planning to pursue another advanced degree are strongly encouraged to complete this course. Students who will be taking either THEO 6943 (Thesis) or CMIN 6943 (Culminating Leadership Project) are required to complete this course. A proposal must be completed to pass this course and will serve as the student’s starting submission for entry in to CMIN 6943 or THEO 6943. (Same as CMIN 6203)

THEO 6423 A HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY – This course invites the student to consider the development of orthodox Christian theology and reflect on its significance for current expressions of Pentecostal-charismatic communities in a global context. There exists an ongoing need to provide a rationale for the historic creeds and confessions of the Christian church. The aim is to provide the student the skills necessary for critical, loyal engagement with their own confessional tradition.
THEO 6943 THESIS – Under the guidance of a thesis supervisor and two readers, students prepare a final written thesis that serves as the programmatic capstone for the MA in Theology and Culture program as well as a contribution to the literature base. A reader’s fee will be charged for two readers beyond the supervisor. All students submit a copy of their final, approved thesis to the library in electronic format. (Grade Pass/No Credit, Reader fee assessed).

THEO 6990 THESIS CONTINUATION – Students who need additional time to finish their thesis after completing the THEO 6943 Thesis course, must register for this course each term through completion. No student can enroll in this course for more than three years (six terms) without the approval of the Dean of the College of Ministry. A Continuation Fee applies to this course.

SCHOOL OF NURSING

NURS 5113 CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to curriculum development, pedagogy and evaluation. Compare and contrast selected curricula in terms of educational philosophy, learning theory, psychology of learning, learning needs assessment, learning outcomes, design of learning activities, and assessment. Develop a map of personal learning goals that reflects an understanding of learning theory, curricular design, assessment, and the identification of a clinical focus for advanced learning. Document and explain rationale for the selection of a scholarly project topic.

NURS 5133 RESEARCH AND INNOVATION FOR HEALTH CARE – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to health care research and innovation. Compare and contrast the utility of quantitative and qualitative research methods to evaluate and answer health questions posed by faculty, students, and practice environments. Propose and debate the transfer of technological and service delivery innovations from other fields to the domain of health care. Formulate research questions and hypotheses through the analysis of available data sets. Document and explain the research question, hypothesis, and method of the scholarly project. Document and explain the role of innovation and the employment of research findings in the scholarly project. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development.

NURS 5213 HEALTH CARE LEADERSHIP: ETHICAL AND SPIRITUAL CONSIDERATIONS – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to the ethical and spiritual dimensions of health care leadership. Compare and contrast ethical and spiritual values that have impact upon health disparities, health care systems, and leadership styles. Develop a scholarly defense for a set of personal ethical and spiritual guidelines for nursing practice. Document and explain ethical and spiritual considerations for the scholarly project. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development, NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care.

NURS 5223 HEALTH CARE LEADERSHIP: POLICY DEVELOPMENT AND IMPLEMENTATION – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to the development and implementation of health care public policy. Compare and contrast motivational factors underlying policy proposals and approaches to policy advocacy. Propose to a public, executive branch agency a policy that will promote healthy outcomes. Document and explain policy implications for the scholarly project. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development, NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care.

NURS 5313 PROGRAMMING FOR HEALTH CARE OUTCOMES – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to quality assurance and improvement. Compare and contrast methods of quality assurance, quality improvement, and risk management. Present to a service delivery organization an evidence-based, health-related, proposal for a continuous quality (efficacy, safety, or risk-management) improvement process. Document and explain desired health care outcomes for the scholarly project. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development, NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care.

NURS 5503 HEALTHY OUTCOMES THROUGH EFFECTIVE ORGANIZATIONS – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to organizational behavior and interdisciplinary health care delivery. Compare and contrast approaches to information sharing, resource allocation, collaboration, planning, and leadership. Provide voluntary consultation to an interest group or formal (corporate or government) organization relating to an organizational development issue. Document and explain organizational issues for the scholarly project. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development, NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care.

NURS 5513 HEALTHY OUTCOMES FOR THE INDIVIDUAL, FAMILY, AND SOCIAL UNIT – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting and nursing perspectives pertaining to patient-centered care. Compare and contrast approaches to behavior modification, motivation, and change. Implement a health teaching strategy and/or support intervention designed to promote healthy outcomes for an individual, family, or social unit. Explore applications of healthy outcomes for the individual, family, and social unit. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development, NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care.
NURS 5523 HEALTHY OUTCOMES FOR SOCIETY AND THE WORLD – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to establishing and achieving societal and international health goals. Compare and contrast varied political philosophies with regard to achieving social good and healthy outcomes. Serve an organization or group in the pursuit of targeted healthy outcomes for an underserved or cross-cultural population. Document and explain the possible implications of healthy outcomes for society and the world related to the scholarly project. Prerequisite: NURS 5113 Curriculum Development, NURS 5133 Research and Innovation for Health Care.

NURS 5613 IMPLICATIONS OF HOLISTIC CARE ON HEALTHY OUTCOMES – Analyze historical, cultural, ethical, technological, theoretical, research, forecasting, and nursing perspectives pertaining to health assessment, clinical investigation, pharmacology, and other treatment modalities. Compare and contrast methods or means of establishing, disseminating, and implementing client care guidelines. COUN 6393 ASSESSMENT AND APPRAISAL – In this course, student will gain an overview of assessment and appraisal techniques and their application to counseling interventions. Specific attention is given to interpreting and reading assessment reports and applying evaluations to counseling.

COUN 6453 ADVANCED COUNSELING THEORIES AND PRACTICE – In this course, students study and apply counseling theories and interventions. Attention is given to the selection of appropriate interventions, the evaluation of therapy outcomes, and multicultural issues in counseling.

COUN 6603 HUMAN GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT – This course is a survey of human growth and development across the lifespan. The interaction of biological, psychological, cultural, socio-economic, spiritual, and environmental factors on development. One third of the course is allotted for the study of geriatric and long-term care issues.

COUN 6763 SUBSTANCE ABUSE COUNSELING AND INTERVENTIONS – This course looks at the psychological, physiological, and sociological factors of addiction, placing emphasis on evaluation, interventions, treatments, and prevention techniques across different cultures.

COUN 6942 INTERNSHIP I – This course represents the first of three consecutive semesters in a clinical setting (with supervised counseling). The student combines course knowledge and practicum experience at his or her internship site. Students will practice case consultation and conceptualization with their peers.

COUN 6952 INTERNSHIP II – This course represents the second of three consecutive semesters in a clinical setting (with supervised counseling). The student combines course knowledge and practicum experience at his or her internship site. Students will practice case consultation and conceptualization with their peers.

COUN 6962 INTERNSHIP III – This course represents the final of three consecutive semesters in a clinical setting (with supervised counseling). The student combines course knowledge and practicum experience at his or her internship site. Students will practice case consultation and conceptualization with their peers.

GLST 5153 RESEARCH FOR SOCIAL CHANGE – A comprehensive overview of research methods in the social sciences, and their capacity to improve the lives of individuals and communities. The course focuses primarily on the design and implementation of multiple forms of qualitative studies. Students will consider methodological options for their own future research and begin to develop a strategy for their fieldwork leading to the thesis project.

GLST 5203 SPIRITUALITY, CULTURE AND SOCIAL JUSTICE – Students are encouraged to explore personal, spiritual, and theological foundations for being involved in a helping profession. The course focuses on issues of culture and justice as they apply to socio-cultural contexts and physical environments, and fosters the development of critical perspective to think beyond the surface of challenging social/environmental issues.

In addition to on-site supervision, the student will participate in case consultation in class. Topics to be addressed include: assessment, treatment planning, case management psychotherapeutic intervention, evidence-based practice, cultural psychology, and social justice. Attention will be paid to personal and professional development as they apply to doctoral practicum students. Focus is given to preparing the students for their pre-internships or advanced practicums.

PSYC 7932 DOCTORAL PRACTICUM III – This course is the last of three consecutive semesters of a practicum experience in a professional psychology setting. In addition to on-site supervision, the student will participate in case consultation in class. Topics to be addressed include: assessment, treatment planning, case management psychotherapeutic intervention, evidence-based practice, cultural psychology, and social justice. Attention will be paid to personal and professional development as they apply to doctoral practicum students. Focus is given to preparing the students for their pre-internships or advanced practicums.

PSYC 7942 DOCTORAL ADVANCED PRACTICUM I – This course represents the first of three consecutive semesters of an advanced, second year practicum experience in a professional psychology setting. At the practicum site, the student will obtain a level of experience commensurate with doctoral level clinical training. Throughout the duration of this course, the student will be supervised by a licensed professional at his or her practicum site. Additionally, the student will participate in case consultation on campus, facilitated by program faculty. Preparation for the fifth year doctoral internship is included in the second year practicum course sequence.

PSYC 7952 DOCTORAL ADVANCED PRACTICUM II – This course represents the second of three consecutive semesters of an advanced, second year practicum experience in a professional psychology setting. At the practicum site, the student will obtain a level of experience commensurate with doctoral level clinical training. Throughout the duration of this course, the student will be supervised by a licensed professional at his or her practicum site. Additionally, the student will participate in case consultation on campus, facilitated by program faculty. Preparation for the fifth year doctoral internship is included in the second year practicum course sequence.

PSYC 7962 DOCTORAL ADVANCED PRACTICUM III – This course represents the last of three consecutive semesters of an advanced, second year practicum experience in a professional psychology setting. At the practicum site, the student will obtain a level of experience commensurate with doctoral level clinical training. Throughout the duration of this course, the student will be supervised by a licensed professional at his or her practicum site. Additionally, the student will participate in case consultation on campus, facilitated by program faculty. Preparation for the fifth year doctoral internship is included in the second year practicum course sequence.

PSYC 7991-6 DOCTORAL PRACTICUM CONTINUATION – [Offered for variable credit] Continuing enrollment in Doctoral Practicum past Doctoral Practicum III. (Special Fee involved, Grade Pass/No Credit)

PSYC 8001-6 PRE-INTERNSHIP CONTINUATION – [Offered for variable credit] Continuing enrollment in Pre-Internship past Pre-Internship III. (Special Fee involved, Grade Pass/No Credit)

PSYC 8011-6 INTERNSHIP CONTINUATION – [Offered for variable credit] Continuing enrollment in Internship past Internship III (Special Fee involved, Grade Pass/No Credit)

PSYC 8023 COGNITIVE AFFECTIVE BASIS OF BEHAVIOR – In this course, students will examine foundational theories and issues of learning, memory, decision-making, thought processes, motivation, attachment, and emotions. Attention is given to the impact of emotion on cognitive processes and behavior.

PSYC 8103 ADVANCED PSYCHOLOGY LAW AND ETHICS – This advanced course presents students with regulations, laws, and ethics relating to the professional practice of psychology. This course also helps students think legally, ethically, and with good judgment.

PSYC 8123 INTERVENTIONS AND PRACTICE I: PSYCHOTHERAPEUTIC MODALITIES – Students study theory, mechanisms of change, empirical efficacy, interventions, and practice of several contemporary psychotherapeutic modalities. Students learn methods of building an effective therapeutic alliance and will study how cultural and religious constructs affect the building of the relationship between client and therapist.

PSYC 8133 INTERVENTIONS AND PRACTICE II: POPULATION-BASED APPROACHES – Students examine clinical approaches to specific groups of people served by psychologists including ethnic and cultural populations and specific diagnostic groups.

PSYC 8162 INTERVENTIONS AND PRACTICE III: EFFICACY OF INTERVENTIONS AND INNOVATIVE THERAPIES – Students study the etiology and implementation of outcome measures in psychotherapy and will analyze and discuss emerging treatment modalities.

PSYC 8353 PSYCHOPHARMACOLOGY – In this course, students will gain an overview of psychopharmacology. Emphasis is placed on the interaction between neurophysiology and psychotropic medications, as well as on how such interactions influence psychotherapy, treatment planning, and interventions.

PSYC 8732 PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE SEMINAR: PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS – In this seminar course, students focus on the practical application of current professional standards and ethics to the practice of psychology. Emphasis is placed on synthesizing information from coursework, clinical training, and dissertation.

PSYC 8752 PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE SEMINAR III: SUPERVISION – In this seminar course, students will discuss skills, ethics, issues, and responsibilities of effective supervision. Students will practice supervision skills, examine case studies, and study current research in supervision.

PSYC 8773 PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT I: COGNITIVE ASSESSMENTS – This course specifically examines those tests relating to cognitive assessment. The student is given the opportunity to become familiar with the various tests and instruments via class exercises and assignments. As a result of this class, the student will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to administer such tests under supervision in his or her respective internship setting.

PSYC 8783 PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT II: PERSONALITY ASSESSMENTS – This course builds upon PSYC 8773, Psychological Assessment I, and specifically examines those tests relating to personality assessment, both objective and projective measures. The student is given the opportunity to become familiar with the various tests and instruments via class exercises and assignments. As a result of this class, the student will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to administer such tests under supervision in his or her respective internship settings.

PSYC 8793 PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSESSMENT III: SOCIAL, EMOTIONAL, AND BEHAVIORAL ASSESSMENT – This course builds upon PSYC 8773, Psychological Assessment I, and PSYC 8783, Psychological Assessment II, and specifically examines those tests relating to social, emotional, behavioral, and adaptive functioning. The student is given the opportunity to become familiar with the various tests and instruments via class exercises and assignments. As a result of this class, the student will be equipped with the knowledge and skills to administer such tests under supervision in his or her respective internship setting.

PSYC 8912 DOCTORAL PRE-INTERNSHIP I – This course represents the first of three consecutive semesters of a pre-internship experience in a professional psychology setting. The student will spend a significant amount of time in his or her setting and obtain a level of experience which is commensurate with that which is required at the doctoral level. Throughout the duration of this course, the student will be supervised by an appropriate licensed professional at his or her pre-internship site. Additionally, the student will participate in case consultation with the students and program faculty. Focus is given to preparing the students for their internships. (Grade Pass/No Credit)

PSYC 8922 DOCTORAL PRE-INTERNSHIP II – This course represents the second of three consecutive semesters of a pre-internship experience in a professional psychology setting. The student will spend a significant amount of time in his or her setting and obtain a level of experience which is commensurate with that which is required at the doctoral level. Throughout the duration of this course, the student will be supervised by an appropriate licensed professional at his or her pre-internship site. Additionally, the student will participate in case consultation with the students and program faculty. Focus is given to preparing the students for their internships. (Grade Pass/No Credit)
PSYC 8932 DOCTORAL PRE-INTERNSHIP III – This course represents the third of three consecutive semesters of a pre-internship experience in a professional psychology setting. The student will spend a significant amount of time in his or her setting and obtain a level of experience that is commensurate with what is required at the doctoral level. Throughout the duration of this course, the student will be supervised by an appropriate licensed professional at his or her pre-internship site. Additionally, the student will participate in supervision and case consultation via small group experiences facilitated by program faculty. Focus is given to preparing the student for their internship. (Grade Pass/No Credit)
